SHRINERS ON WAY TO DALLAS TO WIN 1914 CONVENTION

135 Knights and Nobles of Yaarab Temple Start on Long Pilgrimage Over the Hot Sands of the Desert.

CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS, DECLARE DELEGATES

Great Throng at the Terminal Station to See Atlantans Start—Fund of $76,000 Is Ready for Entertainment.

"Atlanta 1914!"

With that slogan and $75,000 pledged by the business men of Atlanta to assure the success of the 1914 council, more than 135 knights and nobles of Yaarab Temple, A. A. O. M. S., started on the long pilgrimage over the hot sands of the desert at 10 o'clock last night, to reach the oasis at Dallas, Tex., where the imperial council will hold its annual conclave.

There were thousands at the terminal station when the caravan reached that point, and the demonstration was one which will not soon be forgotten. Many nobles were in the line of march from the Masonic temple to the station.

Adair Is Confident.

"We will have them here in 1914," said Potentate Forrest Adair, who led the caravan. "I have no doubt of it. We of Atlanta have raised $75,000 in one day and have ample hotel facilities to take care of 5,000 nobles when they come. We have Memphis beat to a frazzle."

The caravan of Yaarab temple will reach the Dallas oasis Sunday morning, and will immediately establish headquarters.

With its Arab patrol and crack drum and bugle corps, forty strong, Yaarab temple will keep Dallas awake during the time council is in session. It will be on the streets day and night, according to Potentate Forrest Adair, and is expected to be one of the big features of the session. The patrol will give a drill and parade in Dallas Sunday afternoon, and at night will serenade the headquarters of every temple in the city.

"If the serenaders to which Dallas will be treated are anything like the one pulled off in Atlanta on the eve of departure, it will be sufficient to bring the Shrine to Atlanta in 1914.

March to the Terminal.

Starting from the temple, 135 knights and nobles marched behind the drum corps through Peachtree and Whitehall to Mitchell and thence to the station. There was a crowd of nearly 2,000 at the station. Along the route of march the nobles pulled off their stunts, which are calculated to attract attention to Atlanta in Dallas.

At 9:45 the nobles boarded the special of the Southern railway, and promptly at 10 o'clock the train moved out. The caravan will move slowly, picking up knights at Birmingham, Meridian and Shreveport. At each of the above points, Yaarab temple will disembark and parade through the streets. The caravan will be met at each of the stations by commercial organizations, and will be entertained by the local temples while they are in the cities.

The train made up for the special accommodation of Yaarab temple is composed of six sleepers, buffet, parlor, dining and observation car. Special chefs were taken along to prepare the meals for the delegates. A number will remain aboard the train while in Dallas instead of taking reservations at the hotels. Receptions aboard the car will be held while in Dallas.

Taste of Georgia Hospitality.

"We are going to give the nobles a taste of Georgia hospitality," Noble W. A. Foster said.

In addition to the invitation which will be extended by Yaarab temple by Potentate Forrest Adair, W. A. Foster and John A. Hynds, and Claude Hutcheson, of Jonesboro, there will be invitations from Governor Brown, Mayor Woodward and the presidents of the various civic organizations in Atlanta. Quite a few officials of the cities in Georgia have sent assuring messages that Atlanta will show the nobles a "royal good time" in 1914 if they come here.

"Atlanta is better equipped to handle the 1914 council than any other city in the south," was the parting as-

The annual Field Day exercises of the grammar schools of the city take place today at Ponce de Leon. The exercises begin at 9 o'clock and continue until 5 o'clock. At the close of the afternoon exercises the prizes will be awarded. There will be a first, second and third prize to each contest.

A dress rehearsal was held Friday morning and everything is in readiness for the big event.

There will be a 100-yard running dash by the boys; a high jump contest; standing broad jump contest, and "chinning the bar." The girls will throw the basket-ball for distance; have a 75-yard running race, and a standing broad and running high jump contest. These will be the main features of the morning program.

In the afternoon there will be running exercises for the primary grades, two contestants entering from each class, and the age of the children limited to between 7 and 10 years.

At 3:30 o'clock there will be the "butterfly roundel," a beautiful figure drill, in which 600 children will take part, representing all the fourth grades in the schools. This is known as the "aesthetic event."

Then will follow the flag exercises, in which a mass drill will be given by 1,400 children dressed in the national colors. Each child will carry two American flags and classes will be formed so as to represent a flag with costumes of red, white and blue.

The procession to the grounds will be headed by Camp Walker veterans, U. C. V., who will carry an old Confederate flag. The old soldiers will have an escort of some of the prettiest young ladies in the city.

The motion picture men will be on the ground to take views of the exercises.

GIRL WILL SWEAR OFFICE OF FRANK DESERTED BETWEEN 12:05 AND 12:10

Testimony Considered Important by Officers Because Frank at the Inquest Stated on Stand That He Did Not Leave Between Noon on Saturday and 12:25, When Quinn Came to See Him.

SHE WENT TO FACTORY TO GET PAY ENVELOPE—POSITIVE OF THE TIME

New Evidence, Just Submitted to Detective Department, Leads Chief Lanford to Believe That Mary Phagan Was Murdered in the Basement—Woman Says She Heard Screams on Saturday Afternoon.

A new and important witness has been found in the Mary Phagan murder mystery.

She is Monteen Stover, a girl of 14 years, a former employee of the pencil factory.

After already having attested to an affidavit now in possession of the solicitor general, she will testify before the grand jury that on the day of Mary Phagan's disappearance, she entered the pencil plant at 12:05 o'clock in the afternoon and found the office deserted.

Also, that she remained five minutes, during which time no one appeared. The building seemed empty of human occupants, she declares, and no sounds came from any part. Expecting to have found the superintendent, she says she went through both the outer and inner offices in search of Frank.

Testimony Important Declare Police.

The police say that this is valuable evidence because of the testimony of Frank at the inquest to the effect that he remained in his office throughout the time between 12 noon and the time at which Quinn arrived, 25 minutes after 12. Also, they recount his statement that Mary Phagan entered the building at 12:05, the time the Stover girl says she arrived.

The latter states she went to draw her pay envelope. She is positive of the time at which she appeared in the office, because she looked at the time-clock on the wall fronting the entrance to the outer office. She was anxious, she says, to ascertain if it was time to draw the pay for which she had come.

In telling of the value of the Stover girl's testimony, the police refer to Frank's testimony, which was recorded as follows:

"What time did Miss Hall, the stenographer, leave the office Saturday, April 26?"

"About 12 noon. I recollect the time because I heard the noon whistles blow."

"What did you do when she departed?"

"Started work on my books."

"Were you alone?"

"So far as I knew."

"Did anyone come in later?"

"Yes. Shortly after 12 o'clock, the

HUERTA ANGERED, HITS AT WILSON

Action of the United States in Consequence of Virtual Repudiation of Ambassador Awaited With Interest.

Mexico City, May 9.—Keen interest is being displayed by the government and the public generally in what action the United States will take as a consequence of the virtual repudiation of Ambassador Wilson today by President Huerta. The president has made no statement either to Ambassador Wilson or to the public qualifying his statement that Mr. Wilson, "diplomatically, has no standing" but foreign Minister De La Barra displayed an eagerness to minimize the incident. Senor De La Barra said the declaration of President Huerta did not mean the severance of diplomatic relations between Mexico and the United States. He draws a fine distinction between the diplomatic representative who performs the full functions of his office, and one who confines himself to routine matters, and said he apprehended no serious consequences from today's incident.

Those close to the administration say they would not be surprised should the United States take Mexico at her word and recall Ambassador Wilson, but the opinion prevails that President

Macon Woman Finds Husband Dead in Bed—Had Taken Poison.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Several weeks ago, E. W. Smith, who conducts a grocery store on the Clinton road in East Macon, bought a bottle of carbolic acid to be used in the treatment of a mule which had gotten a nail in its foot. Freaman B. Walker, who lives next door to the store, being an expert on matters of this kind, was called in to apply the treatment. Half of the acid was used and the other half taken home by Walker.

This morning about 5 o'clock, Mrs. Walker awakened to find her husband's body lying half way out of the bed. She shook him, and when he failed to arouse she discovered he was dead. She had been sleeping beside his corpse for, several hours.

It developed that Walker had swallowed the balance of the contents of the bottle of acid used in the treatment of the mule's foot.

Walker was 44 years of age and besides his widow he leaves one son and five unmarried daughters. Two years ago he moved to Macon from Meansville, and is said to have been a heavy drinker. He was a blacksmith by trade.

This makes the fourth suicide in Macon this month, and at the present rate, May gives promise of becoming known as the "suicide month."

Pretty Chorus Girls And Escorts Injured In an Auto Accident

Five Occupants of Speeding Machine Are Hurt When Car, in Rounding Curve, Crashes Into Embankment.

Two girls and three young men narrowly escaped death at 1 o'clock this morning, and one of the girls is seriously injured as a result of an automobile crash on Peachtree road, 2 miles beyond Buckhead.

The girls are actresses at a local moving picture and vaudeville house, one of the men is an usher there, and the other two are young business men. The party had been for a ride and as they attempted to round a sharp curve at high speed, the machine crashed into the embankment, tossing the girls and one of the men from the car.

The party consisted of Miss Adel Riley, Miss Ethel Ray, O. L. McNeil, of 514 Empire building; B. S. Brooks, of the Peachtree garage, and Clarence Ginn, an usher at the picture house.

When the crash occurred McNeil ran to Buckhead, where he fell in a faint as soon as he attracted aid. The party was carried to the Grady hospital. There it was stated that Miss Ray was seriously injured in the back and arms, and that the other girl had severe lacerations on her head and body, while all three of the men were bruised and cut.

GLOVER REPRIMANDED BEFORE BAR OF HOUSE

Washington Banker Who Recently Attacked Representative Sims Reads Apology.

Washington, May 9.—Charles C. Glover, the Washington banker, who recently attacked Representative Sims, of Tennessee, on account of a speech delivered in the house, was brought before the bar of the house late today and reprimanded by Speaker Clark for violating the privileges of the house. A resolution authorizing the banker's arrest had been adopted a few minutes before with only four dissenting votes.

When brought in by the sergeant at arms, Glover read an apology, saying that his act was committed under great stress of feeling and that he did not know he was affronting the house.

This was the first time in nearly forty years that an outsider had been arraigned before the house for contempt. The assault occurred in Farragut Square on April 15, when Representative Sims and Mr. Glover met for the first time after the former had made a speech in the house severely criticising Mr. Glover in connection with the proposed sale of certain District of Columbia real estate to the government.

During the devate on the report of the committee which investigated the incident Mr. Glover waited in the office of the sergeant-at-arms. He was brought in as soon as the resolution was adopted and arraigned before the speaker's rostrum.

When asked whether he desired to make a defense and be represented by counsel, the banker admitted the facts as recited in the resolution, but earnestly disclaimed any intention of violating the privileges of the house. He express deep regret and offer my apology," he concluded. Then Representative Crisp, of Georgia, offered a resolution authorizing the reprimand. He urged that reprimand always had been the penalty in such cases, except in one aggravated case many years ago.

Speaker Clark delivered the reprimand solemnly and deliberately. "The freedom of speech and immunity from question on words spoken in the senate and house," he said, "lie at the root of our institutions. Assaulting a member of congress for words spoken in debate might compel a good man, who does not want to kill anybody, to perform that very act."

During the debate preceding the reprimand, when the house was in a very serious mood, Representative Thomas, of Kentucky, created a laugh by declaring Mr. Glover was an athlete, while Representative Sims was "blessed with an abnormal abdominal protuberance," and that Mr. Glover would have been "justified just as much in assaulting a Muscogee duck with both wings clipped."

NEW WHITEHALL GRADE ADOPTED

Finance Committee Requested by Street Committee to Appropriate $30,000 to Begin Work by October 15.

The new grade for Whitehall street, from a point between Mitchell street and Trinity avenue to Forsyth street, as prepared by the chief of construction, was adopted by the street committee of council yesterday afternoon by a vote of 8 to 1. Councilman Jesse Wood voted "no."

With the motion to adopt the new grade was one requesting the finance committee of council to appropriate $30,000 with which to begin the work on October 15. That date was selected in order to give tenants who might be inconvenienced time in which to make other arrangements.

The total cost of the work to the city will be $47,388, and of this interested property owners have subscribed $17,000. The county, it was stated, has agreed to do the work with convicts and the cost to the city will be the building of the necessary retaining walls and furnishing the material.

To Ask Council for the Money.

The council finance committee will be asked to make the appropriation in the June apportionment sheet.

The question was asked by Councilman Haverty what would be the effect if after the new grade was established and new buildings were started council failed to appropriate the money? To this Charles H. Black replied that the four citizens who contemplated erecting buildings would not expect any damages and would not sue the city.

As the county has agreed to do the work, and as it is more than likely that the council finance committee will provide the money, it looks now as if the improvement of Whitehall street this year is a certainty.

A large crowd of citizens appeared before the street committee Friday afternoon, some few of whom objected to the new grade, contending that a grade not so radical would accomplish the purpose desired without damaging property or putting tenants to inconvenience.

Among those who objected was Judge John T. Pendleton, who owns the building occupied by the Capital City laundry. He said that there would be a cut of seven and a half feet in front of his property which would cause him irreparable damage. He said that a 15-foot cut would be better than 7½ feet.

Attorneys E. C. Meyer and L. Z. Rosser objected, the former because there would be a fill in front of the Guthman laundry, and the latter because he thought a number of people might be damaged unnecessarily. The Cash Grocery company, a furniture dealer and the Atlanta Box factory also objected, claiming that their business would be injured.

Robert R. Otis, George H. Boynton, J. Carroll Payne, M. L. Thrower, R. A. Broyles, Y. H. Kriegshaber, L. C. Greene, Walker Dunson, C. E. Caverly, C. H. Black, J. R. Smith and others were among those who spoke in favor of the project. They stated that unless the work was done at once and with the grade submitted by the chief of construction it could not be done at all. They said that all property values on the street would be greatly increased and that the increases would far more than offset any damages.

Those Who Favored Project.

Those who favored the plan took the position that the improvement would be of great benefit to the entire city and was too great and too wide sweeping in its nature to allow any one man or his interests to stand in the way of it.

Attorney Meyer submitted another grade and said he believed that the objectors could get together with the promoters and effect a compromise that would be approved by all parties at interest.

The argument against this was that it would cause more delay and that it would not be possible to agree upon

CALLS DEMOCRATS BANDIT-SERVANTS

Columbus, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Forecasting depression and a probable cut in wages to the lowest notch on account of the revision of the tariff under the democratic administration, F. B. Gordon, of Columbus, president of the Cotton Manufacturers association of Georgia, in his annual address to the meeting of the association in this city today said:

"We are now about in this position: the cotton mill train on which we are all passengers and which has been running along pretty smoothly on schedule time through what we thought was a friendly country, has been held up by a lot of bandits, not the usual cut-throat variety, but much to our surprise, we find them to be our legislative servants. They do not say 'your money or your life,' but they do say what we believe means our prosperity if not our very life.

"In substance they explain that they regret to treat their masters in this way, but that they know what is best and they must cut down these legitimate profits so they can divide the money to better advantage. When the people who built the mills and the people who keep them going and the farmers who raise the cotton to supply them, all in due time begin to feel the disastrous effects of this hold-up, then the same conscientious able bandit-servants will be looking for other jobs."

The following officers were elected tonight: F. B. Gordon, Columbus, president; Harry L. Williams, Columbus, secretary and treasurer; C. V. Truitt, LaGrange, Ga.; Allen P. Johnson, Atlanta; George H. Lanier, West Point; C. B. Carpenter, Trion; J. H. Porter, Macon; F. Thradwick, Dalton; B. R. Blakely, Griffin, vice presidents; H. P. Meikelham, Lindale; J. L. Hand, Pelham; J. A. Mandeville, Carrillton; S. W. Swift, Columbus, executive committee; H. A. Carter, Atlanta; Fuller E. Callaway, LaGrange; G. B. Scott, Atlanta, and P. B. Murphy, Newnan, legislative committee.

The traffic committee is composed of H. P. Meikelham, Lindale; J. D. Massey, Columbus; C. V. Truitt, LaGrange; Fuller E. Callaway, LaGrange; Allen F. Johnson, Atlanta; F. Thardwick, Dalton; tariff committee, Fuller E. Callaway, LaGrange; Allen F. Johnson, Atlanta; F. Thardwick, Dalton.

Griffin was chosen as the next meeting place. The meeting tomorrow will be given over to pleasure. Members will make a trip to Goat Rock power plant and to other points of interest.

little girl who was killed entered my office."

When Mary Phagan Reached Office.

"Can't you estimate the time?"

"Yes, it was about five minutes after twelve."

"How did you fix the time?"

"It seemed that late."

"What time do you say Lemmie Quinn arrived?"

"About 12:25 o'clock."

"Were you out of the office from the time the noon whistles blew until Quinn came?"

"No."

Monteen Stover was seen by a Constitution reporter last night at her home, 171 South Forsyth street. She is a daughter by first marriage of Mrs. Homer Edmondson, a boarding house keeper of that address.

She is now employed with a White-hall street department store as saleslgirl. The detectives discovered her last Saturday, when she came again to the pencil factory to draw the pay she had missed on the previous week-end.

As she and her mother entered the office they were questioned by two officers who were stationed in the plant to procure whatever evidence they might find. Monteen told them of her visit on Memorial day, and gave them her name and address. Monday morning she was taken to the office of the solicitor general, where an affidavit was attested to.

Went to Factory To Get Her Pay.

"I went to the pencil factory that Saturday," she told the reporter, "to draw my pay. The front door and the door leading to the second floor were unlocked. The whole place was awfully quiet, and kinder scary as I went up the steps.

"The minute I got to the office floor I looked at the clock to see if it was time to draw my pay. I would have looked at it, anyhow, I suppose, as it was always customary for me to punch it the first thing upon entering the place to go to work.

"It was five minutes after twelve. I was sure Mr. Frank would be in his office, so I stepped in. He wasn't in the outer office, so I stepped into the inner one. He wasn't there, either. I thought he might have been somewhere around the building, so I waited. When he didn't show up in a few minutes, I went to the door and peered further down the floor among the machinery. I couldn't see him there.

"I stayed until the clock hand was pointing exactly to ten minutes after twelve. Then, I went downstairs. The building was quiet and I couldn't hear a sound. I didn't see anybody. As I walked from the building out to the street I saw four young boys standing close to the entrance. When I first came into the place they were standing on the corner of Forsyth and Hunter streets. They were only young boys."

Detectives Wanted Testimony a Secret.

Mrs. Edmondson, Monteen's mother, said to the reporter:

"I regret it exceedingly that Monteen will have to testify in this case, but if it will help clear up the mystery I will be mighty glad. Also, I'm grieved that it will get in the newspapers. The solicitor and detectives seemed extremely anxious that her testimony be kept secret."

Monteen had worked at the pencil factory for a year. She spoke highly of the suspected superintendent, and said that he was as popular with his employees as any employer whom she had ever known. She did not know the Phagan girl, and said she had never even seen her.

After scouring the vicinity of Mapleton and Smyrna for miles around, the police have finally found the mysterious "girl in the red dress," who was reported to have visited the pencil factory with Mary Phagan at the time of her disappearance. She is Mrs. Nancy Caldwell, of 10 Gray street, a former companion of the

How Report Started.

STARTED.

The chief of police and two detectives, after an auto trip to Marietta, were informed she lived in Atlanta, and after examining her thoroughly, learned that she had not seen Mary Phagan since a year ago. The rumor of her association with Mary on Memorial day started from a drive near Mapleton by a girl who is said to have asserted her knowledge of a girl who accompanied Mary to the pencil factory.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Caldwell was Miss Nancy Summerhill, who lived eight miles from Smyrna. She and the victim were intimate friends until 1912, when both moved to Atlanta. She was seen by a reporter for The Constitution late last night.

"No, I wasn't with Mary that Saturday," she said. "I wish I had been. I might be able to throw some light on the mystery. If I had gone with her to the factory building and had experienced all I am reported to have experienced, I'd have said so long ago."

Says She Heard Screams.

Evidence that Mary Phagan was murdered in the pencil factory basement in which her lifeless form was found, was submitted by Chief Lanford to Solicitor Hugh Dorsey today in the shape of an affidavit attested by a young woman pedestrian who passed the building at 4:30 o'clock the Saturday of the crime.

She testifies to this effect:

That at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 26, as she passed the Forsyth street entrance to the National Pencil factory, she was attracted by shrill screams of a girl emanating, apparently, from the basement of the plant building. So tragic did the cries sound that she stopped. Three sharp, piercing screams came in succession, then died away as though having been stifled.

The deponent says that although her experience preyed depressingly on her mind, she did not consider it important enough to report to police authorities until she read of the Phagan murder. Her testimony has been in the hands of Chief Lanford since last Monday.

Believes Girl Was Alive.

This throws a new aspect on the mystery. The problem of the bloody hairs and stains found on the second floor confront the sleuths. It has heretofore been the accepted theory that the murder was committed in that part of the building. Chief Lanford, however, believes that the girl was still alive when her body was lowered to the cellar.

Neither Chief Lanford nor the solicitor would reveal the name of the woman. Her home is on Haynes street, but further than this they would tell nothing. The affidavit exists, though, the chief states positively, and will be delivered to the grand jury.

Many new developments arose Friday. With the case completely in its hands, the state busied itself throughout the day with examining 100 or more witnesses who were summoned to the office of Solicitor Dorsey.

Solicitor Dorsey announced Friday morning that he had obtained one of America's best detectives to assist him. He would not disclose the name, saying that the new detective would work secretly on the case. It is rumored that Detective Burns has been employed to conduct the investigation.

Many Detectives on Trail.

The entire staff of detectives at police headquarters, numbering thirty, is still engaged in running down every available clue. The Pinkertons and other private agencies continue at work on the mystery. No pains or expense are being spared.

The grand jury, according to Solicitor Dorsey, is likely to begin its investigation any time after Friday. It is thought its action will be taken next Monday. Shelby Smith, member of the Fulton county commission, in speaking of the solicitor's probe, said it would be thorough and exhaustive.

"No expense will be too great, no work too hard and exacting. We have instructed Solicitor Dorsey that he will be backed to the last ditch in the money to be spent. He has the sanction and support of the county board in every particular."

Newt Lee was interviewed for the second time by olicitor Dorsey Friday afternoon. Mr. Dorsey would not discuss the lines along which the negro was quized.

The grand jury which has been empanelled for the present term is composed of many prominent and influential residents and business men. It is as follows:

L. H. Beck, foreman; F. P. H. Akers, R. R. Nash, Charles Heinz, H. G. Hubbard, John D. Wing, R. A. Redding, V. H. Kriegshaber, R. F. Sams, A. D. Adair, S. C. Glass, J. G. Bell, Cephas M. Brown, George A. Gershon, A. L. Guthman, Walker Dunson, W. L. Peroy, C. A. Cowles, Sol Benjamin, R. J. Bell, H. M. Beutell, W. A. Bosser and Albert Roylson.

a grade to which there would be no objection.

Mr. Otis, who is chairman of the Whitehall grading committee, made a final statement in which he outlined how his committee had gone over the matter carefully for many months and had secured waivers from all except about three or four per cent of the property owners.

"It has taken a great deal of work," he stated, "and we have been before council with the matter since last February. If something is not done now this great improvement will not go through, because we have been informed if we do not use the convict this fall there is no telling when we will have the opportunity again."

Action of the Committee.

When the chairman of the committee announced the discussion by citizens closed, Councilman Kimbrough, moved that the grade submitted by the chief of construction be adopted and the finance committee be asked to appropriate $30,000 in the June appropriation sheet.

Councilman Haverty offered an amendment that the new grade be not established until the city had appropriated the money.

Councilman Wood moved as a substitute for the whole that no new grade be adopted until all parties at interest could get together and come to an agreement.

Councilman Wood's substitute had no second, and that of Councilman Haverty was voted down. The motion of Councilman Kimbrough was then adopted.

Daniels in Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., May 9.—Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels arrived tonight at the navy yard, which he will inspect tomorrow. He is accompanied by Mrs. Daniels and his aide, Commander Palmer. Mr. Daniels will leave tomorrow night on a torpedo boat destroyer for Fort Royal, whence he will go to Savanah to spend a few hours before taking a train for Washington.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS LEAP ON TARIFF BILL

Attempt to Override Decision of Democrats to Consider Measure Without Public Hearings.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—(Special.)—The Underwood tariff bill reached the senate today and that body, as usual, will determine the final form of the revenue measure. The senate is always counted upon to raise rates that are too low, and invariably the house ways and means committee reports some schedules that are indefensibly low in order to have something to trade on in conference.

It is not expected by anybody that free wool and sugar will be changed by the senate, but a number of items in various schedules will be changed.

Republicans of the senate leaped eagerly into their fight against the Underwood tariff bill when it was brought over from the house and precipitated an issue by attempting to override the decision of the democratic caucus to consider the measure without public hearings.

Forerunning the assault that the republicans propose to wage against the schedules came again today, Senator Penrose sought to have the bill referred to the finance committee with instructions for public hearings after Senator Simmons, chairman of the committee, had moved for reference without instructions. Action on this phase was pending when the senate adjourned until Tuesday, several republican leaders predicting that public hearings would be forced over the heads of the finance committee. Democratic leaders, however, disputed this prediction.

Speaking on the Penrose amendment, Senator Smith, of Michigan, in a vigorous appeal for consideration of the bill publicly instead of in "the darkness and gloom" of the committee room, assailed the tariff bill. He declared it would result in a repetition of "dark days" that followed the Wilson bill, that the sugar industry Smith declared the beet sugar industries would suffer, and that already business was falling off rapidly throughout the country.

Charging that free sugar in three years would give the American Sugar Refining company and the Federal Sugar Refining company an option which they would foreclose on, the property of the beet sugar interests, their only domestic rivals, Senator Smith declared the beet sugar industry would be wiped out.

"If the American Sugar Refining company and the Federal Sugar Refining company," said Senator Smith, "have made an alliance with the democratic party, it is an unholy alliance. Men who have not shirked in committing crimes to increase the volume of their business and who are now responding to the will of the law, make very poor allies for any political party."

Senator Penrose then began the republican fight by moving to have a committee instructed to hold public hearings. Senator Simmons made the point of order that the amendment was not germane. Vice President Marshall overruled the point of order and discussion on the Penrose amendment was begun.

The debate at once warmed up. Senator Williams, holding forth predicted dire consequences to the business of the country, which he declared would suffer again what it suffered twenty years ago. The sugar schedule he denounced as "a crime," saying it would give a monopoly to the American Sugar Refining company in three years and that the price of sugar would return to the high level that prevailed before domestic competition.

To Coerce Employees.

Senator Thomas read to the senate an article from a Troy, N. Y., newspaper in which an employee of the United States Shirt company declared that concern already had threatened to reduce wages and in other ways had attempted to coerce its workers to use their influence against the Underwood bill.

"Speaking for myself," said Senator Thomas, "I want to say here and now that tactics of this sort will produce any but desired results. I believe that an industry which resorts to this line of conduct that its employees may be coerced should meet the result of having placed on the free list every article that enters into its line of business."

"I think it little less than brazen effrontery," said Senator Smith, of Michigan, answering Mr. Thomas, "for the senator from Colorado to make these statements and to say that manufacturers shall not be allowed to complain about the burdens put upon them by this bill. If you think by your threats you can force silence on the part of employers of labor you are making a mistake."

Continuing, Senator Smith declared that what the country suffered twenty years ago through the Wilson bill, it was about to suffer again. He added that the democratic sugar schedule was a crime; that it would in three years give the American Sugar Refining company a monopoly and send the price of sugar up to what it was before the country had domestic competition.

While Senator Smith kept the floor, Senators Reed, James, Smoot, Works, Thomas and Hitchcock entered into an argument that turned away from sugar to the manufacture of furniture and then back again to sugar.

Senator James said he would prefer to have the sugar "monopoly" bought by money from the treasury of the United States than to give it permission to continue "to rob the people."

Senator Thomas got into an argument again by stating that Syrians, Japanese, Chinese, Mexican peons and other foreigners were employed in the western beet fields, and that the usual wage paid was about 20 cents a day. Senator Smoot denied this.

Senator Hitchock wanted to know why the furniture manufacturers of Michigan were afraid of the proposed tariff on their products, and Senator Smith replied that they feared competition with furniture built in Europe with cheaper labor.

RAILROAD Y. M. C. A. GAINS 404 MEMBERS

The close of a month's membership campaign of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. last night showed that a total of 404 names nas been enrolled during the last thirty days. This gives the organization a membership of about 800.

Much credit for the success of the campaign is due to the active interest of W. W. Walts, chairman of the membership committee. The standing of the teams in the membership campaign was as follows:

L. M. Hunter's team, 200; J. W. Whitaker's team, 176, and W. T. Hamilton's team, 28.

The organization is very popular with the railroad men, and is one of the strongest and best organized in the country.

Huerta is not prepared to go so far as to hand the ambassador his passports.

Huerta Emphatic.

That President Huerta, during his conference with Mr. Wilson used much emphasis in explaining the position of his government, and that his remarks were characterized by a bitterness and warmth which clearly reflected his deep resentment against what he termed the unreasonableness of the Washington government in withholding recognition of the Mexican government has been established, though Ambassador Wilson has refrained from discussing it.

In the face of the statement of President Huerta that a loan had been arranged through English, British, Spanish and German bankers and was lacking only authorization by congress, there persists the opinion that recognition of the Mexican government by the United States is an essential condition to the consummation of the loan and that this fact was the chief cause for President Huerta's break with Ambassador Wilson.

President Huerta today said:

"As a personal friend I am always glad to treat with Mr. Wilson, but diplomatically he has no standing."

This has not been made clear in official declaration, but the public and the press generally have not failed to place this interpretation on the situation.

Ambassador Wilson reported the incident to the state department at Washington, although he may possibly have confined himself to the official declarations by Provisional President Huerta, which leave him a quasi standing as a diplomat.

The newspaper, El Pais, in an editorial today bitterly censures the attitude of the United States, declaring that it should view the policy of non-recognition of Mexico frankly, and withdraw from Mexico not only Ambassador Wilson, but its consular officers.

The question of the claims arising out of the revolutions, the Chamizal Zone dispute, the Colorado river water rights and other matters were discussed by Provisional President Huerta and Ambassador Wilson at the inception of the new administration. General Huerta promised immediate settlement, authorizing Francisco de la Barra, the foreign minister, to make a speedy arrangement with Ambassador Wilson, but nothing has yet been settled.

Huerta Outlines Position

President Victoriano Huerta, during his conference yesterday with Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador, stated very clearly the position of Mexico in relation to the United States. The following official version of the conference was given to the Associated Press today:

"Provisional President Huerta respectfully asked Ambassador Wilson, that diplomat having referred to official matters, that the government of Mexico was disposed to arrange the affairs pending between it and the government of the United States. It was pointed out, however, that for the time being the American ambassador should understand the necessity which the government of Mexico has for abstaining from treating any official matters with the exception of urgent affairs, or ordinary procedure, for the simple reason that while the government of the United States did not regard the government of Mexico all agreements would be ineffective in view of the fact that the government of Mexico has no personality before the government of the United States.

"This was the substance of the conference between his excellency, Ambassador Wilson, and the president of the republic of Mexico, General Victoriano Huerta.

"In addition, however, the government of Mexico, whether recognized or not by the United States, has adopted and will always adopt measures for the security in all the lines of the country, whether its own nationals or foreigners, and this has been demonstrated by the attention given to the petitions of those who have been in any manner injured by past revolutions.

"The United States and all the people of Europe have irrefutable proofs that the government of Mexico is specially pledged to give guarantees to everybody without distinction of nationality."

Capital Cut Off.

The rebels again have cut off the capital from rail communication with the United States by burning a number of bridges on the main line of the National railway near Wadley, in San Luis Potosi. Advices from the rebels came from Matehuala, which they recently captured and made a concentration point.

In the state of Zacatecas there is greatly increased rebel activity. The state capital is practically besieged.

According to a private message received here Francisco Lasquez Gomez, after a conference at Las Vacas, with General Carranza, is going to Washington as the representative of the rebels. This report is not regarded here as Francisco Vasquez Gomez, has no great following.

Generals Pascual Orozco and sixty men today made their long deferred departure from the capital to enter the campaign in the north. General Orozco will be joined at Torreon by General Checho Campos and thence will proceed to Jiminez, where he will await orders from the war department.

NO STATEMENT RECEIVED FROM WILSON AT CAPITAL

Washington, May 9.—No official statement was received today at the white house from Ambassador Wilson concerning the alleged protest made by Provisional President Huerta, of Mexico, against the failure of this government to recognize the Huerta government and thus remove alleged obstacles against the flotation of a Mexican loan. The attitude of the administration is to maintain its policy from non-interference in Mexico's affairs.

It is pointed out unofficially that Ambassador Wilson's presence in the Mexican capital is solely due to a desire on the part of this government to have a representative on the spot. Although there has been a change in the administration, the ambassador has not been disturbed in his tenure of office, for his removal would have involved the necessity of appointing his successor, a move that might have been interpreted as a virtual recognition of the new Mexican regime.

BLENHEIM PALACE SHUT TO FOIL SUFFRAGETTES

London, May 9.—The Duke of Marlborough today closed Blenheim Palace to the public after receiving an anonymous letter revealing the existence of a suffragette plot to destroy the palace.

The National Union of Women's Suffrage societies is organizing an immense national suffrage pilgrimage. Each of the seventeen federations of the union will arrange for processions from all parts of the kingdom to London. The demonstration will culminate in a great meeting in Hyde Park July 26, and a service in St. Paul's cathedral, July 27. The mayor of Windsor has received an official letter expressing the king's regret for the cause which necessitated closing the state apartments at Windsor castle to visitors. The mayor has been informed the apartments will be reopened to the public when militant activities cease. The latest forms of the suffragette outrages in London is the mutilating of the interiors of taxicabs.

RUNS INTO STREET CAR RATHER THAN HIT MAN

Rather than run into a man descending from a wagon, Call Officer J. W. Thorn ran his motorcycle into a street car on Decatur street early Friday morning, and was thrown several yards. He escaped unhurt, except for bruises. He was answering a call, and attempted to pass the street car. Just as he was about to do so, John Wallace, of East Point, stepped from a wagon beside the car, making it impossible for the policeman to pass. He was unable to stop his machine in time, and therefore jammed it into the rear of the car.

CINCINNATI CARMEN GO ON STRIKE TODAY

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 9.—A strike order calling out Cincinnati street car men, effective at 9 o'clock tonight, was modified tonight by an order for all men to finish their night runs. Consequently conditions tonight were normal, but carmen say few cars, if any, will leave the barns in the morning. Crowds gathered at the various barns tonight, but there was no violence.

The carmen here recently were organized and one of the demands is recognition of the union. Company officials refused to meet employees' representatives.

BARACAS IN ATHENS ADJOURN FOR GAME

First Day's Session Hurried Up to See Georgia and Tech Clash.

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Georgia State Baraca convention, representing 275 Sunday schools of the various denominations of the state, decided this morning after organizing the convention, to visit the Georgia-Tech baseball game. There was one dissenting vote. Many of the Baraca classes of young men in the cities have their ball teams and their summer series of scheduled games, and their interest in ball playing was genuine and not out of harmony with the general plan of Baraca classes.

The first delegations arrived last night and established headquarters to pull for the convention to meet in Augusta in 1914. An hour after the Augusta crowd, 38 strong, arrived, a big bunch came in from Macon and the contest began at once, Macon also wanting the convention. This morning Atlanta delegates were wearing tags with a rival message to Augusta's and Macon's "Meet me in Atlanta in 1914."

The state officers present are: J. A. Jackson, president, Macon; W. H. Speer, vice president, Columbus; R. F. McIntosh, second vice president, Albany; Bryson Crane, third vice president, Augusta; J. M. Long, fourth vice president, Cartersville; G. H. Baldowski of Augusta, treasurer; J. J. West, of Albany, secretary, and E. P. Clark, local secretary for the state convention.

Addresses of welcome and responses with reports from the president, the treasurer, and the secretary, took up the morning session, and an address on "What to Read," by A. R. Caldwell, of Atlanta, was one of the features of the afternoon sessions. This was followed by an address on "The Social Side of the Baraca Class," by T. C. Quarles, of Augusta. A reception was given to the young men delegates this evening.

The program tomorrow is full of interest and the place of the meeting will be decided probably at the afternoon session.

Laws and Lawyers Rapped By Judge John S. Candler

"So long as representatives of the state have but one object in view, success—success as the world views it—success for themselves, verdict of juries will be looked upon as the result of trickery and adroit juggling," said Judge John S. Candler in an address before students of the Atlanta Law school and members of the Atlanta bar.

Judge Candler was introduced by Dean Hamilton Douglas, who paid a high tribute to his services as a jurist, and as a practitioner.

Judge Candler delivered a red-hot indictment of practices current among some lawyers, and, incidentally, he paid a warm compliment to the folly of some of Georgia laws.

"The idea of taking an ignorant man, work on him until 4 o'clock in the morning, then flare a flash-light in his face and say, 'We know you killed somebody,' is worse than the Spanish inquisition. Such a practice has no place in the law, and that's why the public are loosing confidence in and respect for the officers of the court.

Stand No Place for Detectives.

"A detective who would voluntarily go on the stand ought not to be believed. The purpose of a detective is to find evidence, and not to swear that the evidence he has is true. The detective is interested to convict the man whom his evidence involves, and, therefore, he is not a competent witness.

"When I hear lawyers tell a jury 'I don't believe,' or 'I do believe,' I wonder if they knbw the breach they are committing. They are not competent witnesses and they have a decided interest in the case they plead. Such a statement is the consequence of one of two things, viciousness or ignorance.

"Conceit is not many steps removed from ignorance, and an odd commentary on conditions of Georgia is our penal code. The Lord thought he could run this world with ten commandments, but the Georgia legislature takes 10,000.

"We are making too many misdemeanors, we are making too many felonies. The result is the average man seldom knows if he is a criminal today, and many are constantly violating statutes from spitting on the sidewalks up.

"Just so long as we make laws by the books full over summer we will have laws violated. I believe with General Grant that if a law is a bad one, enforce it. That would repeal 75 per cent of the Georgia laws in 24 months.

"More crime is committed in Georgia in one year than in all of England and Ireland for just the reason that we have such a useless repetition of laws, we call misdemeanors, all sorts of things, and the statutes cross-fire with the result that the public enforces just about 25 per cent of the laws.

Atlanta v. Great Britain.

"I have sentenced more men to be hanged who have been hanged than all the judges in Great Britain combined since 1860. Think of it! And there is a reason. It's the laws and the methods of some lawyers. People have no respect for law when there is too much of it, and when the law is used for purposes of oppression.

75 Per Cent Too Many Laws.

"There is no such thing as the unwritten law in Georgia, except that 75 per cent of the statutes ought to be unwritten, and forgotten. I heartily concur in the opinion of President Taft, who answers those who say there are too many lawyers in congress. That is the place for the lawyer.

"The law is as high a calling as the ministry, or any other profession. The duties of the lawyer are as sacred and as solemn, for his work is the conservation of the rights of citizens. He must have a proper estimate of his profession and his duties. He must grasp what a man is guaranteed under the constitutions of his state and nation. What a big thing are a man's rights—bigger than his pocket-book—bigger than his home."

"PARADISE LOST AND REGAINED," SUBJECT OF SERMONS SUNDAY

"Paradise Lost—The Tragedy of Sin" will be the subject of Dr. Dunbar Ogden's sermon Sunday morning at the Central Presbyterian church, and in the evening he will carry out the same line of thought in a different aspect, his subject being "Paradise Regained"—The Triumph of Salvation."

Dr. Ogden has just returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where he spent several days in conference with the religious leaders of that place on the subject of vice crusades. After addressing a union mass meeting Sunday afternoon, Dr. Ogden made a second address on Monday morning before a meeting of the Church Federation of Knoxville.

ELKS WILL CELEBRATE FLAG DAY ON JUNE 14

Flag day will be celebrated in great style by the Elks this year. Patriotic songs and speeches are now being arranged by members of Atlanta lodge, No. 78, B. P. O. E., and Exalted Ruler A. L. Dunn prophesies a brilliant affair. The ceremonial will probably be held in the lodge room in the Elks home on June 14, and the attendance will not be limited to Elks.

LONDON SHIVERS AT SUFFRAGETTE THREATS

London, May 9.—Apprehension of the authorities over the threat by the militant suffragettes to eclipse their destructive acts of the past week was manifested by the precautions which were taken this morning when Premier Asquith and Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, accompanied by their wives, left Waterloo station on the Southern railway to proceed to the coast to join the admiralty yacht Enchantress, on which they are to make a long cruise in the Mediterranean.

A large number of naval aides, government departmental secretaries and railway officials surrounded the party, formed by the cabinet ministers and those who had come to bid them goodbye.

Beyond these, there was an outer circle of detectives to protect the ministers from any undue attention by militant suffragettes or their male supporters. So great was the protecting force in the railway station that any demonstration by the suffragettes would have been impossible. Mr. Asquith and Mr. Churchill intend to inspect the British garrisons and naval stations in the Mediterranean.

Lawyer Scores Charities and Declares Nothing Is Being Done for Unfortunates.

Savannah, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Associated Charities of Savannah was scored in police court today by Simon N. Gazan, a lawyer representing a 15-year-old white girl charged with the theft of a bicycle. The arraignment of the charities and of the state created a sensation. Miss Helen Pendleton, secretary of the charities, was not permitted to reply in court to Gazan's attack.

"To raise money for any poor unfortunate I would rather beg for it from the crowds on Broughton street than to get a cent from the Associated Charities," said Mr. Gazan.

"She is too old to go before the Juvenile court, and it would be wrong to send her to jail. It is a crying shame that there is not some institution in the nature of a girls' home or reformatory to which she could be sent.

"This city has provided no such place, yet $20,000 of Savannah's money can be spent to send to New York to arrange for an automobile road race.

"The state has provided no such institution, yet the cities throughout Georgia can, like Savannah, afford to spend money freely for things like road races, grand opera and music festivals.

"Whatever you do, don't turn her over to the Associated Charities. Three weeks ago I called the attention of the charities to the girl's condition, but they did nothing. The girl is more ragged, more destitute, more hopeless now than she was then.

"But what can you expect from the Associated Charities?"

"They file records and make reports and investigate, and investigate some more while the victims of their 'charity' starve!"

The girl was remanded to the custody of her lawyer.

HOME MISSION WORK PLANNED BY METHODISTS

Dallas, Texas, May 9.—The general mission board of the Methodist Episcopal church south now in session here today appropriated $223,175 for all departments of home missions work, of which sum $118,175 goes to carry on women's work and $105,000 to the general board.

The appropriation for women's work included the following:

Florida coast work at Key West and Tampa, $17,467; Gulf coast work at New Orleans, Biloxi, Miss., and Galveston, Texas, $6,370; mountain work at London, Ky., and Brevard, N. C., $16,565; dependent and delinquent schools, Thomasville, Ga., and Dallas, Texas, $15,891; Pacific coast work, $7,715; negro work at Augusta, Ga., and Nashville, Tenn., $5,635.

The board this morning held memorial services for four missionaries who have died in the service. They were Mrs. J. L. Kennedy, Brazil; Miss Sophia Mann, China; Miss Willie Park, Japan, and Miss Kate Bell, a member of the board of deaconesses, of Africa.

KIRK DENIES CHARGES MADE BY MRS. POWELL

"There is absolutely no foundation to the charge of improper conduct brought against me by Mrs. N. P. Powell, Mrs. Lena Bernard, and Mrs. John Bryant," declared Patrolman James Kirk, a member of Chief Beavers' "vice squad." Friday morning, Kirk, with a squad of police, arrested the women last week, charging them with running a disorderly house at 95 Spring street.

"I warned both Mrs. Powell and her husband that they would have to make the women living with them move, and they promised that they would. When they did not do this, and when we saw that from five to fifteen men went into the place every night, we raided it.

"The charge that I made the house my headquarters is absolutely false."

DEFRAUDED PHYSICIANS BY HARD LUCK STORY

Savannah, Ga., May 9—(Special.)—C. S. Coppedge, formerly of Sylvania, is under arrest charged with securing money from four Savannah doctors by means of a hard-luck story. Coppedge found the physicians easy marks until they compared notes. His arrest followed.

ENJOY CONCERT GIVEN BY SCHOOL CHILDREN

The Seventh and Eighth Grades Take Part in Entertainment at the Auditorium.

The concert last evening at the Auditorium by the children of the eighth grades, assisted by a selected number from the seventh grades of the public schools, was enjoyed by a large audience.

All the songs were greatly enjoyed, and the chorus of 1,000 children was fine, and the organ accompaniments by Dr. Percy Starnes were well rendered.

The program consisted of "Folk Songs of Many Countries."

Professor William M. Slaton was master of ceremonies and introduced the numbers. Miss Kate Harralson, the director of music in the schools, had charge of the chorus.

Thirty-five of the city schools were represented, and they wore their school colors, making an attractive scene.

High school boys acted as ushers and distributed the programs.

The program rendered was as follows:

Songs of England—(a) "The Fox Hunt;" (b) "Weel May the Keel Row."

Songs of Scotland—(a) "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton;" (b) "Auld Lang Syne."

Songs of Scotland and France—(a) "Blue Bells of Scotland;" (b) "My Normandy"—Seventh grades.

TARIFF IN THE SENATE.

With the overshadowing passage of tariff revision downward in the house of representatives the democratic platform is one step nearer fulfillment. The measure now goes to the senate. It is there it will encounter its most formidable obstacles, and that the fabric of democratic strength will be decisively tested.

Authoritative reports from senate democratic leaders are to the effect that they expect confidently to put the bill through virtually as it came from the house. They admit that the two senators from Louisiana may bolt or at least be troublesome on the sugar schedule. But even allowing for their adverse votes, the measure can still be enacted, and it is denied that accessions from the ranks of the wool senators imperil the bill's prospects.

From a distance these assertions look to be well founded. The country and the rank and file of the party will hope that such proves to be the case. The country, because it has given its mandate for revision downward and has its mind made up thoroughly to the changed economic system, that revision will entail. The party, because on the fate of the tariff bill in the senate will, in all likelihood, depend its own. If the party keeps faith and "delivers the goods" on this measure, it can with certainty look forward to materializing other features of its program and to retaining the confidence of the nation. It is, therefore, an acid test that the party faces with the transfer of the bill to the upper branch.

One change the senate should make, and that is with regard to exemption of mutual life insurance companies in the tax feature of the income tax clause. As The Constitution has shown, fraternal life insurance and mutual savings bank concerns are already extempted. Mutual life insurance companies must pay a tax of 1 per cent. There is no difference in principle between the fraternal life companies and the mutual life insurance companies. Taxing the latter 1 per cent is a flagrant discrimination, for the 1 per cent tax would be taken off the dividends of hundreds of thousands of mutual life policyholders with incomes less than $4,000, which the bill says shall be exempt. It is to be hoped both house and senate will rectify the original error in the bill in the interest of the poor man's pocket.

MORGAN LOOMS YET LARGER.

"Taller he seems in death" was said of an ancient king whom, the story runs, had wrought greatly upon the events of his day. The saying applies pertinently to Pierpont Morgan. It required the death of the man to demonstrate the esteem in which he was held, not only by this country, but by the world-at-large. The remarkable preamble to his will, bearing unchallengeable witness to the abiding religious nature of the man, deepened the impression. And now comes George Harvey, editor of "Harper's," with further testimony to his breadth and patriotism.

Colonel Harvey told a convention of bankers in New York city that just before the day Morgan sailed upon the journey from which he was not to return alive, he had given to him (Harvey) the final proof of a great and far-seeing spirit. They had been discussing the economic affairs and politics of America in a broad sense. Morgan was a republican in politics, he did not, Colonel Harvey says, favor of the doctrines of Mr. Wilson. Yet, see what he told Harvey. "When you see Mr. Wilson," the financier said, "tell him for me that if ever there should come a time when he thinks any influences or resources that I have can be used for the country, they are wholly at his disposal."

A man who possessed, like this, the larger view, who could at will disregard his own beliefs and prejudices for the welfare of his country, is a true patriot. His toleration and breadth offer a fine example to Americans of every station and walk of life.

REFER IT TO THE HAGUE.

When a man is in public life shall he adhere to his hard-and-fast "tee-total" conviction at the expense of his guests or shall he bow gracefully to custom? Secretary of State Bryan has sent that question wigwagging around the diplomatic circles of the world. His famous "grape juice" dinner has gone into history. He told the diplomatists whom he had invited to his board, it will be remembered, that the father and mother of both himself and Mrs. Bryan had never served wine on the table. He asked his guests if they would not respect his convictions and assuage their thirsts with grape juice made cunningly to sparkle like "the real thing."

Some of our London contemporaries have since been referring to "grape juice diplomacy," and, in more ribald vein, to "Wishy Washington." Even on the continent the frisky Parisian journals are waxing facetious at the secretary's expense, and the ponderous German humorists have launched their heaviest bolts. George Harvey intimates, naively, that the grandparents and parents of Secretary and Mrs. Bryan may have unconsciously "overlooked a good bet," and rises to inquire if a host does not violate the rules of hospitality when he forces his convictions on his guests instead of deferring to their convictions.

We move that this weighty and intricate controversy be referred to The Hague tribunal, with power to act. With Mexico and Japan and Central America already on our hands, this country doesn't want all civilization baying at its heels for the unutterable cruelty of imposing drought on thirsty ambassadors.

TYPHOID AND VACCINATIONS

The New York board of health has taken a step that is likely to be followed by similar bodies throughout the country, and that is to warn urbanites about to depart on a vacation to take full precautions against disease, especially typhoid fever. It is pointed out that with the close each autumn of the outing season a general revival of typhoid is witnessed. This is attributed to the fact that the patients contract the disease at illy-kept resorts and develop it after their return home.

The conditions noted in New York are duplicated practically in every part of the country. Physicians of Atlanta, for instance, declare that every fall they anticipate an unusually large rate of typhoid originating not in this city but in resorts and developed after the patient returns home. Evidently, in the face of a situation of this nature, the most perfect sanitation in Atlanta would not ward off typhoid. We could swat the fly and enforce every sanitary ordinance without affecting this autumn epidemic, as long as our people go to resorts where all the home precautions are nullified.

The remedy adopted in New York, typhoid vaccination, will prove effectual anywhere. Vaccination against the fever has been virtually established by science as a pure preventive. Experiments in the army are conclusive, and those subsequently conducted by civilian physicians bear out the experience of the army surgeons. It will also be remembered that vaccination was used as one of the foremost weapons to prevent an epidemic of typhoid following the floods in the middle west. The expense is small, comparatively, and the discomfort almost negligible. Certainly neither of these items are comparable to the sense of security against one of the most insidious and dangerous of diseases.

Employing vaccination, the prospective vacationer can enjoy his outing with an easy mind. The real and permanent remedy for typhoid, of course, as for other diseases, is through sanitation and educational campaigns. These measures should be extended to the rural districts, until the war against disease shall be as relentless in country as in city. In the meantime, vaccination offers as sure a safeguard against typhoid fever as medical science is able to devise.

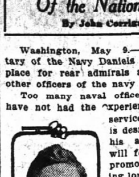
Gossip Caught in Corridors Of the National Capitol

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—Secretary of the Navy Daniels believes that the place for rear admirals and captains and other officers of the navy is with the fleet.

Too many naval officers of high rank have not had the experience in the actual service that he thinks is desirable, and during his administration he will follow the rule in promotions of recognizing long service in present grade as reason for such preference as can be given.



John Corrigan, Jr.

There are a great many more officers in the navy register than there are actual positions for with the colors, but much administrative work is done by those on shore, in the navy yards, at recruiting stations and at headquarters in Washington. Shore duty proves decidedly attractive for naval officers, especially details in Washington, New York and other big cities where there is much social life, and unless there is a shake-up at regular intervals some officers are unduly favored in this respect.

There is no Georgia officer in the navy above the rank of captain. Here is the sea record of the captains and lieutenant commanders credited to the state:

Captain William Nelson Little, appointed in 1872. Has had sixteen years duty at sea. On inspection duty in bureau of steam engineering and ordnance since June, 1908.

Captain William Shepard Benson, now at sea in command of the battleship Utah. Since his appointment in 1872 has had twenty-one years and ten months at sea.

Captain James Harrison Oliver, commanding the battleship New Hampshire. Has had twenty-two years and ten months sea duty since his appointment in 1873.

Captain Marbury Johnston, commanding the battleship Georgia. Was appointed in 1878, and has been twenty years at sea since. He was assigned to the Georgia in November, 1911.

Commander George Franklin Cooper was appointed to the navy in 1872, and has had seventeen years' sea duty, but since May, 1912, has been detailed as a hydrographer.

Commander Stanford Elwood Moses, engineer officer at the navy yard, Norfolk, since October, 1911. Has had fourteen years sea duty since his appointment in 1888.

Lieutenant Commander Richard Spencer Douglas, now commanding the Glacier. Has been fifteen years at sea.

Lieutenant Commander Frank Hardeman Brumby, inspection officer at the navy yard, Norfolk. Has been fourteen years at sea since his appointment in 1891.

Lieutenant Commander George Loring Porter Stone, now on the receiving ship at Norfolk. Has been to sea twelve years and two months since 1900.

Lieutenant Commander William Herbert Reynolds, of the bureau of steam engineering. Has been to sea eleven years and five months since 1893.

Lieutenant Commander Charles Perry Burt, now on inspection duty in the bureau of ordnance at Norfolk, who was recently reinstated to the service. Has had twelve years and two months at sea since 1892.

Lieutenant Commander Hayne Ellis, now in charge of the navy recruiting station at Kansas City. Has had ten years service at sea since 1896.

Lieutenant Commander Clark Howell Woodward, commanding the second group of the torpedo flotilla of the Atlantic fleet. Has had twelve years and nine months at sea since 1895.

Lieutenant Commander Walton Gordon Roper, on duty with the Mississippi. Has been at sea twelve years since 1894.

Representative William Schley Howard, of Georgia, is strongly in favor of Secretary Daniels' policy to keep naval officers on duty with the fleet. He thinks there are too many retired rear admirals and is criticising the administration of the navy department, says it costs $18,000 to send one officer through the naval academy at Annapolis.

Here is what Mr. Howard has to say:

"It looks very much as if the secretary of the navy favors information about the 'swivel-chair admiralty' before he was confirmed as a member of the president's official family.

"He is to be congratulated by the entire country for the firm position he has taken to break up the 'naval ring,' who have actually dictated the naval policy of the government for the last sixteen years, by sending them to sea with their crews and aboard their vessels where they belong.

"You are introduced here and there to Admiral So-and-So, and when you take the naval register and look him up you find he never commanded a flat-bottomed bateau, much less a fleet. Two-thirds of these admirals have been in Washington doing social stunts so long that if sent to sea they would be out of commission from sea-sickness before they got out of sight of land.

"Of late years political influence has served a better purpose than faithful and efficient service. The officer who remained afloat and had no influence in Washington had but little chance with the 'swivel-chair admiralty' in Washington, and the so-called plucking-board. Washington was the goal sought by all those who yearned to be an 'admiral,' and receive the plaudits of exclusive Washington society, where brass buttons and sidearms are more to be admired than an honorable record in line of duty, than courage or battle scars.

"The American navy has been, and is being justly criticised by the American people and Secretary Daniels has struck first to eliminate the worst srticture upon the naval policy.

"You hear every proponent of a 'greater navy' call on congress to follow the English or German or Japanese program. Let us deal with the personnel of the navies of these countries before we discuss the building program of these countries.

"England will allow no 'shore duty' to the officers of the 'line.' Three months' 'leave' from sea duty is the limit for their admiral.

"One sea lord is the technical adviser of the board of admiralty. Civilians are in charge of the entire administration of the naval bureaus and navy yards, resulting, of course, in system, economy and efficiency in the administration of shore policies.

"Let us compare this wise and economic policy with our own country. Today the naval officers assigned to shore duty alone, and to administrative duties in Washington, are drawing over $1,000,000 a year in salaries from the federal treasury, when as a matter of fact the same number of civilian experts and clerks would be delighted to take their positions for half the salary.

"Political influence has been too strong, and the 'swivel-chair' hierarchy has had too many friends in congress to break up this absurd policy of our government.

"Let us carry the present situation a step further. The 'small navy' advocates hurl into the teeth of 'big navy' champions a situation. 'Why build more ships when the department admits that it has not enough officers to man the ships we now have afloat and under construction?' Where are these officers? In Washington, serenely holding down the 'swivel-chair,' or on the retired list for 'physical disability' with the rank of 'rear admiral.' The physical disability caused by a nervous breakdown from performing unusual social duties 'incident to the service' in Washington, or from physical exhaustion caused by chasing senators to assist them in securing a 'soft snap' at headquarters.

"The captain in the service afloat remains a captain so long as he is afloat, with a captain's pay; the moment he gets to the swivel-chair harbor he is promoted to be next higher grade, and when you meet Captain Jones he will beg your pardon and inform you that you now talk to Admiral Jones.

"Over one hundred admirals on the retired list. Think of it! It makes me blush for our navy—when I take a glance at our naval history and see such great sea-fighters as John Paul Jones, Perry, Decatur, Farragut and others, were only ranked as captains.

"The naval academy is maintained at a cost of approximately $18,000 per graduate. These graduates are trained for service at sea. Yet we, under our present policy, take them out of the very service they were trained to serve and put them in an office in Washington or in a naval yard.

"Right in this connection let me say one word about the naval academy. Admission is allowed between the ages of 16 and 21. Just the other day out of a class of 219 only 46 passed the mental examination. The curriculum is so unreasonable for boys of this age picked from the districts throughout the country that it is an absurdity. The boys are usually poor and ambitious. They are not supposed to be college professors at this age, but I will venture the assertion that I can pick one hundred college professors from the leading colleges of the country and 70 per cent of them would fail to pass this mental examination. No wonder there are five hundred vacancies in congressional appointments. If they keep up this foolishness the boys from the country districts whose fathers are unable to send them to the 'coaching schools' before standing this examinaton ought to be told to stay at home.

"Year by year naval appropriations are increasing. Year by year we hear the cry for a 'greater navy.' The people want to know whether the advocates of the greater naval policy mean a 'highland navy' or a 'water navy.'

"My honest judgment is the president has made a most excellent selection in naming Mr. Daniels as secretary of the navy.

"He is a thorough democrat. Plain and outspoken; painstaking and alert; a man of unquestioned business sagacity. No frills or trimmings. He would as soon cut a new road as to follow a beaten path. No man in the cabinet has a greater opportunity than Mr. Daniels to demonstrate his executive qualifications or do the American people a greater service by a complete reorganization of our naval policy. Unless this is done, the appeals for a greater navy will fall upon deaf ears. The representatives of the people are getting sick and tired of this combination between the 'swivel-chair admiralty' and the ship-building lobbyists who have succeeded in fighting a great naval battle with some one of the great powers of the earth just before the naval committee makes up the budget for the ensuing year."

New News of Yesterday

How Peter Cooper's Prophecy Has Come to Pass.

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

One October afternoon in 1876 I spent an hour or two with Peter Cooper at his home in New York city. He was at that time 88 years of age. While his years caused him to be somewhat bowed at the shoulders and made it necessary for him to walk with rather cautious steps, his mind seemed to be as active as that of a young man, and I observed that in much that he said he maintained that characteristic of youth which is the tendency to look constantly into the future and to pay no heed to the past.

Mr. Cooper narrated to me the manner in which he built what was believed to be the first locomotive engine constructed and put into actual use in the United States. This was done, he said, at about the time George Stephenson built the famous locomotive named the Rocket, which was the first to haul a train over an iron-track railroad.

"I have seen in my long life many wonderful things," said Mr. Cooper. "I have seen an engine constructed capable of hauling several coaches at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour operated by steam, and I have some part in the marvelous changes which have been caused by the invention of the steam railroad locomotive."

I reminded Mr. Cooper that his name would always be associated traditionally with that of Cyrus W. Field, Marshall O. Roberts and a few other Americans in the conception, the financing and the construction of the Atlantic cable. Mr. Cooper seemed to be pleased that I should have recalled that circumstance.

He said that from the time Professor Morse, with whom he had intimate personal acquaintance, had invented his apparatus for conveying intelligible symbols instantly and for a long distance through a wire conductor he, Cooper, never doubted the feasibility of a plan to connect Europe and America by cable so constructed as to convey intelligible signals on the instant from one side of the Atlantic to another.

"But the wonders which I have been permitted to see," he said, "are certain to be surpassed by and by. I often tell my family that, while I cannot expect to live long enough to see it, nevertheless some of them, I am sure, will live to see the air conquered by machines as the ocean has been conquered by the Atlantic cable.

"For I am absolutely convinced that the time is coming when the air above us will be intelligently and successfully navigated by some apparatus as is the ocean. We are certain some day to have a navigable air machine.

"I have very often thought this. If a heavy body like a wild goose or an eagle or the condor can fly or perfectly balance itself in the air above us, notwithstanding the fact that it is heavier than air, there is no reason why apparatus which imitates the skeleton structure of a bird and the means by which it poises or propels itself through the air cannot be invented."

I asked Mr. Cooper why this had not already been done.

"Simply because the engine or the machinery which furnishes power by which an air machine may be driven and navigated is yet to be invented," he replied. "Some man of science will discover by and by a very light and yet very effective tool. When that discovery has been made some other inventor will know how to apply this new tool to a light and yet very strong engine. I have sometimes thought it possible that a solar engine upon which Mr. Ericsson has so long worked would furnish the means by which energy could be stored in sufficient quantities to drive and navigate an air machine.

"I venture to make the prophecy that just as soon as a fuel which is light in body and which does not require a large receptacle, and which contains potential energy is discovered an air flying and navigating machine will be invented, and after it has been thoroughly developed it will become a highly important commercial agency."

Peter Cooper said this to me twenty years before the invention of the internal combustion engine with gasoline as a fuel had been perfected.

The World's Mysteries

MYSTERIES of ANTIQUITY

THE ELEUSINIAN MYSTERIES.

For centuries wise men have been employed in trying to fathom the secret of the mysteries of Eleusis, but without success. They presume that these were the greatest mysteries of antiquity for the reason that they have found temples, inscriptions and figures of every character celebrating them, but even at the time the rites existed those who were not initiated into the mysteries were not aware of what they signified, and one of the most exciting of the rules was that no one was allowed to reveal what was seen or heard.

These mysteries were in some way connected with the religion of the ancient Greeks. Even the most ingenious of the speculators were only able to conjecture as to what was represented or intended. The view prevailed for a long time that the mysteries concealed deep truths and the remnants of a primitive revelation too profound for the popular mind.

These mysteries were conducted at various places, but those at Agra and at Eleusis were the most important, the latter overshadowing those of the former and were called the Great Mysteries. These mysteries are first treated in the Homeric hymn to Demeter and when the investigators set to work to explain the meaning of this hymn, they were able to associate it with the pictures and inscriptions which they found in such profusion throughout Greece.

The origin of these mysteries is uncertain, but the popular tradition was that Demeer herself, while searching for her daughter Persephone, came to Attica, where she taught the inhabitants the use of corn and instituted the mysteries. The most important of the celebrations were held at Eleusis in October following the lesser mysteries which were held at Agra the previous spring. The celebration lasted nine days, each day having its own significance which today can only be approximated.

The first day those who had been previously initiated at Agra assembled at Athens. On the second day they walked to the sea in procession and were purified. The third day appears to have been a day of feasting, and, according to some authorities, sacrifices of fish and cakes of barley from the Rarian plain were offered. On the fourth day the procession of the sacred basket took place. This basket contained pomegranates and poppy seeds, and was drawn on a cart by oxen, and followed by women bearing mystic cases. The fifth day appears to have been known as torch day, and probably symbolized the search of Demeter for Persephone. The mystae walked with torches to the temple of Demeter at Eleusis, where they seem to have remained all night. The sixth day, called Iakchos, from a son of Demeter, was the most solemn of all. A decorated statue of Iakchos was carried from Athens to Eleusis, where the votaries again passed the night and were initiated into the last mysteries. Under an awful oath of secrecy they were admitted into the inner sanctuary, where they were allowed to see the sacred things, after which they were called watchers.

On the seventh day they returned to Athens with jests and music, resting at the bridge over the Cephisus, where they ridiculed all who passed. The eighth day is supposed to have been added to the original number so that those might be initiated who were unable to attend on the sixth day. On the night of the ninth day two vessels filled with wine or water were emptied—one toward the east and the other toward the west—by the priests, who at the same time uttered some mystical words.

Besides these ceremonies, there were several others, of which the Eleusinian games, supposed to have taken place on the seventh day, and to have been the most ancient in Greece, were the chief. The Emperor Theodosius suppressed the festival.

Nothing certain is known respecting the doctrines revealed to the initiated, but they were supposed to have contained a comforting assurance with regard to a future state. Distinction of classes was abolished at the Eleusinia, and with this view Lycurgus forbade any woman to ride in the procession in a chariot under penalty of a heavy crime. It seems strange that nothing definite is known regarding the import of this celebration, the view of its very wide popularity and the great number engaged.

Ponderous Personages

JAMES MONROE

By GEORGE FITCH
Author of "At Good Old Siwash"

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

James Monroe was the fifth president of the United States, and was the only president who was ever re-elected without causing apoplexy to the opposition.

James Monroe was born in Virginia, in Westmoreland county, which produced most of our early presidents, and has produced very little since, owing to the bashfulness of railroads about entering it. Monroe was the son of rich parents, and went to William and Mary college, where he spent his time in study, thus proving that a young man can become president, even if he neglects athletics and other college activities. He was wounded in the revolution, and in 1783 became a delegate to the continental congress at the age of 25. He was minister to France, and governor of Virginia afterward, and finally drove the biggest land bargain on record. In 1803 he picked up Louisiana for $15,000,000, it being cheap at 100 times the amount. Later on, when president, he picked up Florida. He was an inveterate shopper.

Monroe would never have been president but for the shortness of human memory. After he had negotiated the Great Britain treaty of 1806, he was so unpopular that men named Monroe declined to brag about their relationship to him, and he retired to Virginia, presumably for life. Yet in 1811 he was elected governor again, and 1813 became secretary of state. He became president with scarcely a struggle in 1817, and kept everybody so good-natured that four years later nobody took the trouble to get out lithographs and become a candidate against him.

Monroe is chiefly famous for the Monroe doctrine, which was a "keep off the grass" sign, which he stuck on the Western Hemisphere, in a prominent place, where Europe could read it. This warning has never been disregarded but once, and that time resulted chiefly in obituaries.

"In a prominent place where Europe could read it."

James Monroe died in 1831, greatly beloved, and almost every state has named a county for him.

A Story of the Moment

By WALT MASON
The Famous Prose Poet.

The Trouble With Dogs

"Where did you get that hyena, that's been following you around for two or three days?" inquired the hotelkeeper.

"Don't call this beautiful creature a hyena, or I'll punch your head," replied the retired merchant, politely. "This is a thoroughbred retriever, and I paid a high price for him. The man who doesn't love a good dog is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils."

"And the man who keeps a dog in town is a moral degenerate. If you want to own a dog you should go to some uninhabited island and take the doggone beast with you. A dog's all right in theory. He is man's faithful friend, and all that sort of thing, and he rescues perishing travelers whenever there's a snowstorm, and plunges into the raging billow to save dying mariners. I've read a million beautiful stories about the devotion of bow-wows, and I used to believe them, but now I have no respect for a dog until he becomes wienerwurst.

"If it hadn't been for a fool web-footed dog I might be living in a palace now, with vassals and serfs by my side. When I was a young man I made a great hit with the leading heiress in our town. She was an only daughter, and her father had ingots of gold and silver corded up in his cellar like stovewood. He was so rich that he couldn't see straight. He recognised my sterling worth, doggone him, and placed the seal of his approval on me. He told me in so many words that I was his idea of a flossy son-in-law. Encouraged by such remarks, I made up my mind to propose to the lovely Isabella, and one Sunday afternoon I invited her to take a walk with me in the woods. I knew the woods would be an elegant place to propose, for people are always romantically inclined when they are in the woods, with the branches sighing over them, and the dippy birds singing like all get out.

"She was all dressed in white and looked like one of the angels you read about. I don't think I ever saw anything more attractive than that girl. I had a dog in those days. It was a four-legged critter that was born without any brains. It was always doing something or other, and I might have known that it would cause trouble when it followed us to the woods. We rambled around under the lordly sycamores for a while, and then we came to a little pond. We sat down on the shore, and while she gazed pensively at the water I began explaining that life without her would be a bore. I had prepared my address in advance and it was one of the best efforts of my life, and as I warmed up to my work, consulting my notes occasionally to refresh my memory, I could see out of the corner of my eye that I was making a good impression.

"Meanwhile that feeble-minded dog was swimming around in that dark gray, greasy water. And just as I was approaching my peroration the blamed brute came ashore. It stepped right in front of the girl and shook itself and fifteen gallons of muddy water flew all over her. She was a sight to be seen. I kicked three lungs out of that dog, but that didn't help any. The girl just stood there looking at me in a tone of voice that would have melted a graven image, and when I tried to apologize and explain she broke her parasol over my head. She never spoke to me again and I came near dying of a broken heart.

"Just as soon as you get a dog your troubles begin to arrive. If they don't come in one form they will in another. Your neighbors will despise you for keeping a beast that kills their chickens and keeps them awake all night. In six months you won't have a friend within three blocks of your home. And sooner or later your dog will go mad and bite you, and you'll begin frothing at the mouth, and the doctors will chain you to a tree and feed you with a pitchfork. Take my advice and give that wolverine to some poor widow who has a string of children to support."

LAW TO STERILIZE ASKED BY TRUSTEES

Annual Report Is Submitted by Authorities of the Georgia State Sanitarium.

The trustees of the Georgia State sanitarium have submitted their annual report to the governor, and they make several recommendations.

First they would like to have the name of the institution changed to the "Georgia State Hospital for the Insane." They ask for a law amending the admission of patients so as to bar feeble-minded children, paralytics, harmless seniles, persons escaping trial for crime, and epileptics who are not insane.

A law to sterilize certain classes of patients, such as criminals and defectives, is also wanted.

The institution is declared to be badly overcrowded, and the death rate is said to be very high.

According to the report, there were on January 1 of this year 3,429 patients in the sanitarium, for whose treatment and maintenance the state expended last year $530,000, the per annum cost for each patient being $153.06. During 1912 the number of patients received was 1,168. Of these 586 offered no hope of recovery.

It is estimated that there will be 3,629 patients in 1914 and 3,729 in 1915. An appropriation of $644,042.50 is asked for the sanitarium for 1914, and $662,290.50 for 1915.

A new $125,000 building for the acute insane is recommended, as are a $40,000 nurses' home and a $100,000 annex for the negro patients.

RUMORS YET PREDICT REMOVAL OF STATION

Griffin, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Talk about the removal of the Georgia Experiment Station from Griffin to Athens will not down. Griffin citizens consider that they have put too much money in the station to let it be carried away without protest, and assurance is given that they have plenty of resources to back them up in their contention, should it come to a show down.

Upon investigation it is learned that the idea of removal is not contemplated by the board of directors. It is stated at the station that the board of directors in an informal discussion prior to their annual meeting considered the rumors afloat regarding the removal, and that the general trend of their opinion is against such a movement. Each director was in harmony with that sentiment, and in the regular business session one member who formerly had introduced a bill to remove the station stated that he would never again do so, but would from now on fight such a bill.

Another indication of the board's sentiment in the matter is the vote cast for the election of a new station director to succeed Calvin. Fifteen votes were cast for the two candidates nominated, and of that number DeLoach received eight, or a majority of one. Since it is understood that DeLoach is backed by Dr. A. M. Soule, and that further it is known that Dr. Soule's pet scheme is to remove the station, the narrow margin of his man's election is to be taken as an index of the feeling of the board in the situation.

ONLY SOFT DRINKS FOR CORDELE ELKS

Cordele, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—That the Cordele lodge of Elks have entirely eliminated the serving of all beer, whisky or wines at their club rooms is information that has reached the mayor and city council, and in their session last night that body voted a resolution of thanks to the organization.

That the voluntary act of the fraternity evidenced a spirit of co-operation and inclination to assist the council in upholding law and order, as well as the dignity of the city, is the declaration of the resolution.

Booth's Trial Again Postponed.

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—After being continued and passed and put off for five times, J. Carl Booth, charged with seduction two years ago, will be given a second trial next October. The trial this week, lasting from Monday morning till last night, resulted in a mistrial, after the jury had been out twenty-six hours.

NIGHTSHIRT PARADE BY JOYOUS STUDENTS

Tech Boys Celebrate Victory Over Georgia—Going to Athens in a Body Today.

Seven hundred Tech boys celebrated their victory of 4 to 3 over Georgia yesterday afternoon by a mammoth "night-shirt" parade last night.

Headed by the college band they came down Peachtree and the other business streets of the city, shouting like a tribe of Comanche Indians in their hilarious enthusiasm.

No bunch of fans ever had more "pep" than this crowd of youngsters, and Solomon in all his glory, verily, was not arrayed like one of these. Dressed in night shirts, kimonos and bath robes, and armed with bells, horns and lusty lungs, they took Atlanta by storm.

Incidentally and without reflecting on the work of the boys on the diamond, it is such support as the Tech boys render their team that tells strongly in winning the game.

The entire student body will leave this morning on a special train for Athens to see today's game there.

LOCKERS ABOLISHED.

University Professors Win Long Fight in Athens Social Club.

Athens, Ga., May 9—(Special.)—At their annual meeting, the Cloverhurst Country club, the leading organization of the kind in this part of the state, elected as officers Dr. W. H. Bocock, president; C. D. Flanigen, vice president; Prof. W. D. Hooper, secretary and treasurer; E. R. Hudgson, Jr., W. E. Jackson and Blanton E. Fortson, board of governors.

By a vote of 25 to 15 the grill room, with its locker attachment, was abolished. The locker club matter has been one of interest in the organization since the resignation of two ministers who were members. The university faculty members, who led the contest to abolish the lockers, were successful and one of their number was made president and another secretary and treasurer.

The defendant was arrested with J. Gary Johnson and Ed. Coursey, two other white men, charged with the murder. The cases against Coursey and Johnson have been nolle prossed. "The Way, The Truth and The Life"

Mansions in Heaven, Factories on Earth, And Certain Houses

The night of His betrayal, Jesus said:

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me.

"In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

You believe, and yet are troubled.

His cross and love have made you dissatisfied with self and with what you see and hear.

Visions of a heavenly home for you can not soothe you, so long as yonder hovels pour streams of children into Mammon's maw.

"They should be at play," you say.

Instead, factories and mills are marring their hearts and lives to make dividends for men.

Not this did Jesus mean, when He said:

"Suffer the little children to come unto Me."

And you would not—could not still the pity born of His spirit surging in your heart.

Rightly, you deny that woman's virtue depends on money.

But many families receiving less than a living wage must live within cheerless walls.

And this, you know—

When their girl is lost, fathers and mothers are not consoled by the thought that, had their wage been greater they could have saved her from the colorless, gloomy home which made her the more easily believe the luring lies of an easier way to live.

"Better had she died," you cry.

True! But you will not defend the hovel and the wage.

You recall:

"The day-spring from on high hath visited us,

"To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet in the way of peace."

And so, when some misguided man says:

"Segregate a few women for the common good."

You answer:

"Who shall choose the victims?

"Since when did God give man the right to assign some to mansions in the skies and send others to lodgings in hell?"

You justly say:

"Have done with the lie that men being lower than beasts makes necessary the ruin of some women!"

Even should a creature, like the fabled Minotaur of Crete, more monster than man, appear, you will not talk of sacrificing girls for him.

Instead, you will lock up the brute.

Segregate him in a cell; that would be well.

The day has past for the making and selling of white slaves in our city.

God's pity for His children is opening your eyes and ears.

You will help your sister. Never again will you consent by silence to her destruction.

Heaven help the man who thinks you will.

You are awake.

"You believe in God."

GRAFTING "HIGHER UPS" SENTENCED TO PRISON

Four N. Y. Police Inspectors Sentenced Without Showing Disposition to "Squeal."

New York, May 9.—Dennis Sweeney, John J. Murtha, James E. Hussey and James F. Thompson, former police inspectors, convicted of conspiring to obstruct justice to check graft revelations involving them, were sentenced today to serve one year in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $500 each. This is the maximum sentence.

Up to the moment that sentence was pronounced, the belief prevailed that one of the four would "squeal" to the district attorney "the men higher up." If any of them entertained such intention, he masked it under a stolid front of calmness as he faced the bar. Reports that one of the four was bargaining with Mr. Whitman for a suspension of sentence and that the long-sought guiding genius of the system would be brought to the latter through a confession, were still prevalent about the criminal courts building after sentence had been pronounced. It is not yet too late for one of the inspectors to save himself by an eleventh hour statement.

No move of any sort looking to an appeal was taken by any of the four prisoners today. An effectual club against appeal is held by the district attorney in the form of indictments for bribery—a felony—recently returned against the quartet.

The crime for which the four inspectors—highest uniformed officials in the department—were convicted, was brought to light by the district attorney in his crusade against graft in the police department; begun after the murder of Herman Rosenthal. George A. Slipp, a resort keeper, told Mr. Whitman that he paid regular protection money to collectors acting for Sweeney. When it came time for Slipp to testify before the grand jury he had fled. He was found at Atlantic City, brought back to New York and testified that Sweeney and his three confidantes had raised a fund and hired him to remain out of the state.

PRESIDENT TO SIGN SUNDRY CIVIL BILL

May Protest Attaching of So-Called Class Legislation to Supply Bills in Future.

Washington, May 9. — President Wilson told some of his callers today that he would sign the sundry civil bill as it passed the house and senate, but strong pressure is being brought to bear to induce the president to change his mind. Mr. Wilson's own friends and advisers are divided on the issue, and some have told him they side with President Taft, who vetoed the same measure because he regarded it as class legislation, the provision in it exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from prosecution with funds set aside for the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust laws.

The impression that came from some of the president's callers today was that while he would sign the bill, it would be with a protest outlining his objections against the attaching of any such legislation in the future to supply bills. The president is reported to have taken the position that inasmuch as the house has passed the bill three times, once over Mr. Taft's veto, and the senate has approved it twice, he would yield to the apparent determination of congress to enact the bill.

It also was stated at the capitol by those who have recently discussed the subject with the president that he does not feel any principle of substantive law is involved by the exempting clause which is effective only for the short period of the appropriation, and that if labor unions or farmers' organizations violate the anti-trust laws they might be prosecuted by the use of other funds.

HOLDERS OF STOCK IN THE GEORGIA LIFE THREATEN RECEIVER

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Officers of the Georgia Life Insurance company, a million-dollar Macon concern, state that they have been notified by three stockholders representing ninety-one shares of the stock of the company that unless they are paid $15,000 for their stock by 10 o'clock Saturday morning, an application will be made to the court for an injunction to keep the stockholders from carrying out their proposed plan of reducing the capital stock of the company from $500,000 to $300,000.

Representatives of the company state they understand also that unless the money is paid application will be made for the appointment of a receiver.

The company states that as the stock is now selling for $65 a share, the demand of the three stockholders for $15,000 on $6,000 worth of holdings is excessive.

"MOVIES" ARE OUSTING "LEGITS" IN CHICAGO

Chicago, May 9.—The rapid contraction of the legitimate theatrical field in Chicago, largely reflected in the expansion of motion picture shows, was emphasized today by the leasing for five years of the Colonial theater, one of the city's most pretentious play houses, to a firm presenting film productions. Yesterday the historic McVickers went the same road. That the transfers were not wholly due to the approach of summer is indicated by the fact that the Olympic theater some time ago changed to the exhibition of moving pictures.

These developments are the result principally of an agreement entered into during the winter among owners of some of the principal theaters to curtail the competition which had resulted in the over-construction of theaters not only in the metropolitan cities, but all over the country. Chicago is regarded as a good show town, but last winter there were so many play houses in operation that only productions of unusual popularity would attract paying audiences. Passes were abolished, but that expedient did not help much. Recently Powers theater, the scene of many high-class plays, placed on sale for fifty cents all seats unsold at 7:30 o'clock.

NEGRO MURDERER IS HANGED IN TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tenn., May 9.—Pat Mulloy, the negro charged with the murder of Herman Henning, a merchant, August 6, 1909, was hanged at daybreak at the state prison today. He died protesting his innocence.

Unusual interest in the negro's fate had been aroused by the hard fight for his life made by his attorney, notably before the governor, who granted two respites. Officers at the prison say that when searched there yesterday afternoon a freshly sharpened knife was found on the prisoner.

MUNSTERBERG WARNS PEACE CELEBRATORS

Says Caution Should Be Taken to Prevent Movement From Having Anti-German Aspect.

New York, May 9.—Professor Hugo Munsterberg, of Harvard, a German citizen, today told the American committee arranging for a celebration of 100 years of peace among English-speaking peoples, that there were many "non-English people" who regarded the movement as a forerunner of an alliance between England and the United States antagonistic to Germany. While he regarded such a view as absurd Professor Munsterberg added, he warned them to proceed carefully.

"We already have," said Professor Munsterberg, "to avoid every appearance of this movement being pointed at new English descendants in this country. There is not the slightest doubt but that there is a certain distrust and a certain fear that this movement would bring about friction in the direction of those who are not of English descent. They fear they would be brought into a 'second line' as if they were citizens of the second class. I can see that this is far from your view; but the crowd misunderstands.

"There are many who believe that the purpose of the whole movement is to bring America to the service of England in order to fight Germany. That is certainly a most absurd understanding and it would be most unfortunate if such a view should gain more strength. There has been a century of peace with England, but peace between Germany and this country has never been broken.

"I hope that those who are responsible for the details of the movement will not overlook the possibility of dangers."

Mr. Carnegie, presiding, replied to Dr. Munsterberg.

"We are so innocent of the charge," he said, "that we cannot imagine that anybody would suppose that any American has no preference, I might say. I suggest that the proposed monument which are to commemorate the 100 years of peace of the past, also say this:

"With abiding faith in unbroken peace with all nations for centuries to come' that will relieve you, perhaps.

"We have no more patriotic Americans than the German people," concluded Mr. Carnegie.

SHEDD FOUND GUILTY.

Jury Finds Verdict of Involuntary Manslaughter.

Augusta, Ga., May 9.—At 10 o'clock Friday morning the jury in the case of the state versus Marshall Shedd, the Georgia railroad engineer charged with the murder of Edward ("Sonny") Collins, of Augusta, returned a verdict of guilty of involutary manslaughter. Judge Henry C. Hammond, without comment, imposed sentence. Shedd will serve twelve months on the chain gang and six months in jail.

The jury in the case retired Wednesday evening. Thursday it announced that they were hopelessly divided and the judge re-charged them. Their announcement Friday morning that they had reached a verdict came as a surprise. Shedd's attorneys would make no statement whether or not they would appeal.

PROGRESSIVES LEAVE FOR CHICAGO MEETING

Washington, May 9.—While many progressive republican congressmen, headed by Senator Cummins, were leaving today for Chicago for a conference on the reorganization of the republican party, the "old guard" leaders dubiously were shaking their heads. "When the time comes to reorganize the republican party," said Senator Gallinger, an old line leader, "I think we must follow the men who helped build the party and not those who helped to wreck it."

Senator Smoot and other regulars expressed similar sentiments. The progressives, however, went away hopeful of results.

Senator Bristow said his senatorial duties would prevent him from going, and Senator Norris said he did not believe he had taken any interest in the conference. Mr. Cummins refused to give a list of those expected to attend.

Chairman Hilles of the republican national committee has called a reorganization here for May 24.

TECHNICALITY HALTS JACK JOHNSON CASE

Chicago, May 9.—Benj. C. Bachrach, attorney for Jack Johnson, halted the hearing of testimony in the white slave case today by a technical objection and the jury was excused while federal Judge Carpenter listened to arguments on the objection.

Belle Schreiber had brought her testimony up to October 15, the date named in the indictment against Johnson on which Bachrach objected to the introduction of any evidence bearing on the counts in the indictment.

Johnson is charged with bringing the Schreiber woman from Pittsburg to Chicago for immoral purposes. Bachrach contended that the Mann white slave act is directed against the transportation of women from one state to another for commerce in her immorality and not against immorality itself.

DARDEN, OUT ON BOND, BIDS ON COUNTY WORK

Darden's hearing will come up the last of this month.

MOVEMENT TO WITHDRAW MRS. HAM'S NOMINATION

President Wilson Informs Bell That Name Was Sent in Through Inadvertence.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—The nomination of Mrs. H. W. J. Ham to be postmaster at Gainesville is now pending before the senate committee on postoffices and post roads. It will probably be acted upon on Tuesday, unless withdrawn in the meantime.

Representative Bell said he understood a movement was on foot to have the nomination withdrawn, but he knew nothing about it. He had an engagement with the president yesterday to discuss the recommendation of A. S. Hardy, but after the matter was settled he did not go to the white house. He has a note from President Wilson saying that Mrs. Ham's name was sent in yesterday through inadvertence, and he had not intended to include it in this batch of appointments. Nothing further has been done, however.

VACANCY FOR ANNAPOLIS IN TWELFTH DISTRICT

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—Representative Hughes, of the Twelfth district, has sent out letters to the rural free delivery carriers in his own district and elsewhere, seeking information as to the cost of the service they render, and what is their net profit after paying for teams and wagons and their upkeep. He believes that the net profits of the rural carriers is very small.

Representative Adamson is seeking some ambitious young man in his district between the ages of 16 and 20 who aspires to attend the naval academy. He has a vacancy to fill and the applicant must take the examination on June 5.

William J. Harris, as director of the census, will have 130 appointments of agents to gather cotton ginning statistics in Georgia. The compensation ranges from $3½ to $780 a year, but only twenty agents receive more than $400 per annum. Mr. Harris' appointment is still held up.

"GENERAL" DRUMMOND IN SERIOUS CONDITION

London, May 9.—General Mrs. Flora Drummond, the militant suffragette leader, who collapsed twice in Bow street police court during yesterday's proceedings against the principal officers of the Woman's Social and Political Union for conspiracy, is very ill today from the effect of her privation during her "hunger strike," while under remand. Her physician has advised her to undergo an operation.

LaFayette, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The identity of the man found dead on Lookout mountain on April 20 still remains in doubt. The body was not that of Herman Leslie, as was generally accepted last week, as Mr. Leslie has been located near Cedar Grove.

Sheriff Catron is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Will Cook, of Hemlock, Ga., who thinks that the murdered man may have been her husband, who has been missing from home since March 25.

LEADERS TO DISCUSS CURRENCY PROGRAM

Considerable Opposition in the Senate to Hurry Legislation During Extra Session.

Washington, May 9.—Details of the currency program for the house and senate will be discussed at a conference of congressional leaders with President Wilson. Considerable opposition has developed, particularly in the senate, to the proposal to hurry currency legislation at the extra session, and the leaders will endeavor to ascertain just how far the president desires to go and how far his wishes can be met in the present legislative session.

Up to this Representative Underwood has been of the opinion that while the currency question might be taken up at the present session, no attempt should be made to put through a complete bill until the new tariff has gone into effect. A similar opinion obtains in the senate.

Representatives Underwood, Palmer and Glass and Senator Owen are expected to take up the question with the president.

If general currency legislation is attempted it is probable that an effort will be made in the house to bring up the so-called "money trust" bills for the regulation of stock exchanges, clearing houses and national banks which resulted from the Pujo investigation in the last congress. Members of the house also expected after the currency bill has been disposed of a revision of the national banking laws will be taken up.

ARMY AVIATOR KILLED BY FIFTEEN-FOOT FALL

Los Angeles, Cal., May 9.—Lieutenant J. D. Park, a military aviator, who started from San Diego this morning on a flight to Los Angeles, was killed at Olive, nine miles north of Santa Ana.

Lieutenant Park met his death in a fall of less than fifteen feet. He had alighted in order to oil a valve in the Olive school house on account of a heavy mist that confused him as to his bearings, and after giving a message to a little girl to telephone to Glenn Martin in Los Angeles, he rose again. Then he swooped over a low hill and crashed into a tree. He was dead when the child and her father reached his side.

Advertising Drives the Wheels of Trade

In its infancy, advertising was regarded as a game of chance. Men tossed in their money blindly and trusted to luck to pull it back with winnings.

Advertising today is almost a science. Trained men who know its laws can foretell with reasonable certainty what the results from an advertising campaign are likely to be.

We know now that advertising is only salesmanship on paper—the cleaner its appearance the quicker it attracts—the more sincere its message, the greater its influence.

Published in The Constitution, this kind of advertising brings returns that amaze the uninitiated. Examination of conditions shows as the reasons, the honest message of an honest merchant printed in an honest morning paper that enters the homes of and is read by wide-awake people of every class.

REPORT CONDEMNS FRIEDMANN "CURE"

Results Do Not Justify That Confidence Which Publicity Has Inspired, Say Federal Health Investigators.

Washington, May 9.—The first authentic and official report of the federal government's investigation of the Friedmann tuberculosis vaccine made public here today declares the results of the public health service observations so far do "not justify that confidence in the remedy which has been inspired by widespread publicity."

The National association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis, before which the report was presented, immediately and unanimously adopted resolutions declaring its belief that "no specific cure for tuberculosis has been discovered that deserves the confidence of the medical profession and the public" and declaring it to be the duty of the public to continue "all the present well-tried agencies."

Although couched in the diplomatic terms of a governmental scientific document, the report on the Friedmann "cure" expresses the disappointment of the public health service at the conditions imposed by Friedmann; and says his declination to furnish complete information concerning his vaccine was not satisfactory from a scientific standpoint." The public health service, however, the report says, accepted his conditions because of the great importance to thousands of sufferers and the hope that a cure might be found.

The report was made by Dr. John Anderson, director of the hygienic laboratory, and Dr. A. M. Stimson, another public health service officer, who were designated by Surgeon General Blue to make laboratory tests of the Friedmann vaccine and observe the selected tuberculosis patients inoculated in New York.

Information Held Back.

The investigators pointed out that while Dr. Friedmann in his preliminary correspondence offered to furnish full impartial information before this government he declined to do so after coming here. Observations by the public health service will be continued, however, and the investigators expressed the opinion that the patients already inoculated must look forward to a long period of treatment.

"We believe that at the present time," says the report, "we are not yet in position to express an opinion based on the present condition of patients under observation. The disease for which the remedy is used is prolonged and is characterized by periods of advancement and retrogression. It is also one in which psychic influences are a powerful factor. Time is, therefore, necessary to properly evaluate the effect of therapeutic measures.

"We must not lose sight of the possible therapeutic value of this preparation and on the other hand it is necessary to guard against too great an optimism in its ability to cure.

Confidence Not Justified.

"Without presenting in detail the conditions of patients under observation, we are in a position to state that the facts thus far observed do not justify that confidence in the remedy which has been inspired by widespread publicity.

"In our opinion, harm may have been done by this undue publicity, insofar as it has lessened the confidence of tuberculosis persons in well-recognized methods of treatment and interrupted their use, we are constrained to advise against any lessening of those well-known measures which not only had effected cures, but which have reduced the incidence of the disease. We are aware that Dr. Friedmann does not wish to be judged scientifically on newspaper statements, and he would undoubtedly disclaim responsibility for certain of those which have appeared. Nevertheless, it is on those that the public bases its opinion until replaced by reliable and unbiased scientific pronouncements, supported by convincing data.

"In our series of patients, Dr. Friedmann has almost exclusively made use of the intramuscular method and in pulmonary cases, and a very considerable proportion of them have either developed no consolidation infiltrate at all, or have suffered from abscess formations. It is evident, therefore, that a very considerable portion of these patients may expect their treatment at the hand of Dr. Friedmann to extend over a long period.

"Concerning the cultures submitted to us we may state that a series of experiments is under way. The bacillus has been found to be an acid-fast organism having properties quite different from those of any tubercule bacillus with which we are acquainted. It appears to be identical with an organism cultivated from a few loopfuls of the material used for injection which Dr. Friedmann permitted us to place on culture media in his presence. We requested Dr. Friedmann to furnish us with a large amount of this material for examination, but this he has declined to do. We can state, however, that living acid-fast bacteria are being injected by the intramuscular and intravenous method, although we are ignorant of what medium they are suspended in, or what additional substance or substances may be contained in the final mixture."

History of the "Cure."

The report covers exhaustively the history of the Friedmann "cure" so far as the facts have been available to the public health service, from the time of its announcement in Berlin in November, 1912, and reveals the efforts of the public health service to gather material from Dr. Friedmann for its investigation.

On the whole, Dr. Friedmann's reluctance to furnish certain details "were not satisfactory from the scientific standpoint," but, the report says, "In view of the great importance of the matter to tuberculous patients throughout the country and in the hope that a valuable remedy might have at last been found to not only cure tuberculous patients but to prevent the disease, the conditions imposed by Dr. Friedmann were accepted. An additional reason for taking advantage of opportunities to make every study possible was the assurance by Dr. Friedmann of its harmlessness, when injected into human beings."

One of the conditions imposed by Dr. Friedmann, according to the report, was that he would furnish detailed information of the methods of preparing his remedy when the public health board recognized favorable results in patients. The board found that under all the conditions imposed it would have opportunity only to study a culture of the bacteria said to be used in some way by Dr. Friedmann in the preparation of his treatment, to test its pathogenicity on the lower animals and observe the effect of treatment by him of tuberculosis patients with his finished remedy. These limitations, the investigators found unsatisfactory from the scientific standpoint.

The report is careful to say that Dr. Friedmann's reticence had in no way been allowed to interfere with the judgment of the board of the effects which it has observed.

The government investigation is not finished, as the tests being conducted in the hygienic laboratory here and the observations of the persons inoculated will be continued.

Immediately after presentation of the public health service report, a resolution was unanimously adopted declaring it to be the judgment of the association that "no specific cure for tuberculosis had yet been discovered to warrant the confidence of the public or the medical profession."

The resolution recommended to all that present methods of treatment be continued. Dr. Friedmann was not mentioned by name in the resolution.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. John H. Lowman, Cleveland, Ohio; vice presidents, Miss Mabel L. Boardman, of the American Red Cross, and Dr. Theodore B. Sachs, Chicago; treasurer, William H. Baldwin, Washington; secretary, Dr. Henry Barton Jacobs, Baltimore.

PREDATORY WEALTH STANDS CONFESSING

So Bryan Says to Guests at Editor Grasty's Dinner—Whole World Reforming.

Baltimore, May 9.—Considerable interest attached to a dinner given here last night in honor of Secretary of State W. J. Bryan, by Charles H. Grasty, editor of the Baltimore Sun and at which A. Mitchell Palmer, the Wilson leader in the house of representatives, was a guest.

Among the 100 or more other guests, were United States Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware; Secretary to the President J. F. Tumulty, Richard Evelyn Byrd, speaker of the Virginia house of delegates; Pleasant A. Stovall, of the Savannah News and C. W. Jackson, of the Portland (Oregon) Journal.

Dudley Field Malone, third assistant secretary of state, attended as the representative of Assistant Secretary of State J. E. Osborne, who was unable to be present.

The secretary of state did not allude to his western trip. He spoke of the hopes and aims of the administration and his speech throughout breathed a spirit of loyalty to the president. Speaking of his own defeats he said he cherished no enemities or regrets.

"There is no load that will break a man down so quickly and so surely as a load of revenge," he said. "The man who tries to get even with others has few opportunities of happiness in his hatred, but he is all the time corroding himself."

Rejoices in Change.

Mr. Bryan rejoiced that he had lived to see a change take place. "No one man," he said, "no few men, could claim credit for what has been done. No one man, no group of men could stir a nation as this nation has been stirred. This is no local movement; it is no reform starting in the west; it is not even an American reform. It is a world-wide movement, and we are but part of it.

"I owe my office to the generosity of the president of the United States. He led us in our last fight, and if any man thinks I was disappointed because the leadership fell to another, let him disabuse his mind of that thought. I rejoiced that there was one who could win and win big, and I was so much more interested in the cause than in any title that could come with it, that I am sure that the president, himself, was not happier than I was. I think he may be able to do things that I could not have done, and I know he will do them as much as he could ever help me."

Mr. Bryan spoke of the long fight for the constitutional amendment, providing for direct election of United States senators. He was waiting, he said, for just one more state to send its notice to Washington, when he would "proudly step aside" in favor of those who have proven themselves capable of the discharge of public duties and men can be trusted with the people's interests.

"Today predatory wealth stands confessing before the bar of public justice that it has disgraced the name of business, and what President Wilson is trying to do is to separate honest business from dishonest business, so that the country will not bear the odium of dishonest business. If President Wilson's election means anything it means that the government is to be administered by the people's representative for the benefit of all the people, and that privilege will have to take the advantage it has had in the past, but that 'equal rights to all and special privilegee to none' will be embodied in every department of this government."

HALF PINTS GIVEN AWAY AFTER NEGRO IS FREED

Thirty half-pints of "booze" were given away to the lawyers and spectators in Judge Calhoun's court Friday morning, when Ed Chappelle, colored, was freed of the charge of not guilty of stealing it from the Beavers' club.

Judge R. R. Jackson appeared for Chappelle and when he had cleared him of the accusation, he was confronted with the problem of allowing his client to go down the street with almost two gallons of whisky and run the risk of being arrested upon suspicion of being a "blind tiger." He found the solution in the aforesaid method.

It is probable that the case will not be closed before next week.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Bibb county board of education has decided to employ a director for the canning club work in the country schools of the county. The director will take a special course in canning and preserving at the state college during the latter part of the month, and will be employed by the board for six weeks during the canning season.

Bibb county has the largest girls' canning club in the state, the county agricultural institute having taken an interest in the work. Miss Mary E. Craswell, of the canning club department of the State College of Agriculture, is co-operating in every way possible in the work.

Heiress Who Fled From Home

RAMONA BORDEN, HEIRESS WHO FLED

Gail Borden, the famous condensed milk millionaire, whose daughter, Ramona, aged 17, ran away from a sanitarium at Pompton, N. J., and gave her father a wild chase before she was found in Boston, said that the girl's return would not bring about a reconciliation between him and his wife, from whom he has been estranged for several years. "Ramona is a capricious girl, young and vivacious," he said. "She is headstrong and hard to bring up. I have tried many ways to give her an education. Perhaps she has had too much money. The fact that she has become united with her mother is no reason why I should again live with my wife." Ramona had another side to tell. "I wanted a home," she said. "A girl at my age does not want to be sent from school to sanitariums and then back to schools. I had been buffeted around quite enough by my father, and I made up my mind to settle down somewhere like other girls. I ran away so that I could join my mother. I wrote to her and sent her messages. She came east from Los Angeles, Cal., at once, and I'm happy that I am with her."

PAROLES ARE SOUGHT BY 15 LIFE-TIMERS

Of the 108 applications for parole before the federal parole board now in session at the United States penitentiary near Atlanta, fifteen of that number have been submitted by life-time men and to these R. V. LaDow, of Washington, president of the board, W. H. Moyer, local warden, and Dr. J. C. Weaver, prison physician, are giving hard work.

It is the first time a parole board has ever had before it an application for leave of absence from a life-time man, the law only recently having gone into effect.

Julian Hawthorne, son of the widely read author of that name, is eligible because of orders issued by the judge of the federal court that passed sentence upon him directing that Hawthorne's term should commence from the date of his conviction. The sentence is a short one, and of it Hawthorne has already served two-thirds of his time counting from the day of conviction.

So far the board has disposed of a large number of the applications, but as the board's recommendation in each case must be reviewed by the attorney general before a pardon can issue, nothing can be ascertained from the members of the board before the action of the attorney general, with whom the final recommendation rests.

PROF. TAFT DENOUNCES PROPOSED LEGISLATION

New Haven, Conn., May 9.—Former President Taft, Kent professor of law at Yale, in his third lecture on "Some Questions of Modern Government" today denounced the initiative and referendum as "very much like legislation during the French revolution—the work of political cranks and directly contrary to the spirit of the constitution."

He dealt at length with the income tax and advocated a graduate income tax which would include all incomes of more than one thousand dollars, on the ground that "everybody ought to contribute something, in order that he may feel more responsibility in the government because of his payment."

Professor Taft discussed characteristics of present day men in congress, declaring that they pay too much attention to what their constituents want. He said:

"They coddle the people and fail to tell the truth to them. Many men in congress now flatter the people so much that they finally come to believe they are victims of others. Ultimate failure, however, the people will find out and will reverse their action on these men."

$10,000 Want State School Funds.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—An unexpected question has arisen here over the school census which is now being taken. The enumerators have taken the names of all of the children of school age who are inmates of the various charitable institutions, including the Georgia Industrial Home, the Hephzibah Orphanage, and the Masonic Home, and now those at the head of these institutions have come forward with a request to the board of education that they be given at least a portion of the state appropriation.

At the Georgia Industrial Home there are 100 children of school age and the state pays $3 a year on each one of these to the county school fund, though none of the children attend the public schools.

Supreme Court Adjourns.

Washington, May 9.—The supreme court today suspended arguments of cases and adjourned until next Monday. It will then take a recess until May 26, when it will recess until probably June 9.

"UNCLE" JOHN ROSS ILL IN THE FEDERAL PRISON

"Uncle" John Ross, one of the oldest convicts in years as well as in time served, now doing a life term in the federal penitentiary for murder, is seriously ill in the prison hospital with the chances against his recovery.

Thursday "Uncle Johnny," as he is called by fellow prisoners, guards and officials, observed the thirty-third anniversary of his imprisonment receiving the attention of Dr. Weaver, penitentiary physician, and one of the best nurses in the prison, while in Atlanta C. H. Burge, well known business man and other friends were busying themselves to get the old man's petition for a parole before the parole board now in session.

The old convict is eligible for an application and one would now be before the board but for the fact "a near friend" will be extremely hard to find for him. Mr. Burge and those working with him are seeking help from the public to secure by subscription enough money to take care of the old convict after he leaves the penitentiary.

WINKLES IS ARRESTED FOR STABBING HENTZ

J. A. Winkles, the East Point contractor, who is alleged, stabbed and seriously wounded Hal Hentz, of the firm of Hentz & Reid, architects, Wednesday morning in a fight over the materials to be used in the construction of Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey's new residence on Ponce de Leon avenue, has been arrested, His bond, which was placed at $500, was made immediately. The case will not be set for trial until after the wounded man gets out of the hospital.

Winkles declared to the police, following his arrest, that he stabbed Mr Hentz, in self-defense.

MAY SPLIT FLORIDA, MAKING TWO STATES

Tampa, Fla., May 9.—Senator Lindsay introduced in the senate today a resolution providing for a vote of the people to decide whether the state shall be divided, creating a new state, West Florida, out of that section lying west of the Suwannee river.

The measure has a fair chance of passing the legislature. The people of the northwestern part of the state have for years advocated splitting off from the remainder of the commonwealth.

CITY SELLS CALABOOSE FOR FUNDS FOR LIGHTS

Kingston, Mo., May 9.—Kingston sold its calaboose today to obtain funds to light its streets. The sale was decided upon after the town marshal reported to the city council that the "lockup" had not held a prisoner for six months.

The city needed money immediately for lights, so an auctioneer was called upon to dispose of the building. "Uncle Bole" Brown bought it for more than enough to complete the lighting.

"I will use the cells as a chicken house," said Mr. Brown.

HAIL FOR 20 MINUTES BATTERS DOWN CROPS

GARDENS OF ATLANTA NEED GOOD, HARD RAIN

But the Weather Man Predicts Clear and Warm for the City Today.

LOST—One good soaking rain to make Atlanta's gardens grow.

The weather forecast for today is different in no particular from that of the last week or more. There will be more warm, clear weather, but no rain.

Atlanta's gardens have been made for weeks, but only a few of the seeds planted have shown roots above the ground. The main reason is assigned to a lack of rain, and gardeners, both amateur and professional, are daily scanning the horizon anxiously for any sign of a shower to help things along.

SOCIETY TAKES TEA ON WHITE HOUSE LAWN

Washington, May 9.—Washington society, official folk and their friends, were entertained from 5 to 7 o'clock tonight at tea on the lawn fronting south of the white house by President and Mrs. Wilson.

Threatening skies spread apprehension, but the expected showers never came. The president and Mrs. Wilson received the guests, while their daughters, members of the cabinet and their families mingled with the visitors. After the first formalities of the reception the president moved about the lawn, greeting his friends.

Vice President Marshall, Chief Justice White and members of the United States supreme court, diplomats and many members of congress were present, but the invitation list contained only a part of the congressional circle. Two other garden parties have been set for May 16 and May 23. A call from the house for a quorum to vote on a bill took some of the congressmen away, but most of them failed to heed the call. The marine band played during the function and light refreshments were served under the maple trees.

FLAGLER'S CONDITION IS AGAIN SERIOUS

West Palm Beach, Fla., May 9.—The condition of Henry M. Flagler, the southern hotel and railroad magnate, who has been ill here for several months, is again causing his friends grave anxiety. After a rally from the critical condition into which he lapsed as a result of injuries in a fall, Mr. Flagler, according to reports given out at his residence, has grown weaker during the past few days. For nearly a week he has taken little nourishment, and immediate friends and business associates were today summoned to his bedside.

His physicians would not admit tonight, however, that their patient's condition had become critical.

Gordon Cadets Break Camp.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Gordon cadets, from Barnesville, who have been holding their annual encampment at Holton range, will break camp tomorrow. One hundred and fifty boys have been in the camp. The mornings have been devoted to rifle practice and the afternoons to drill work. Their uniforms have been conspicuous on Macon streets throughout the week.

BRYAN RECEIVES JAPAN'S PROTEST

Formal Communication Over Alien Land Bill Is Taken by the Secretary of State Before Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, May 9.—Negotiations between America and Japan regarding the California land legislation formally were initiated today when Secretary Bryan had two meetings with the Japanese ambassador at the state department.

While there has been a number of exchanges between the two officials since the inception of the California legislation, until today, they had been informal and based upon the desire of the Japanese government to avert an open issue.

Today, however, in anticipation of the consummation of the legislation, the Japanese government handed in its formal protest, which was considered by the government and the cabinet, and found sufficiently weighty to call for deliberate treatment. So it was arranged that Viscount Chinda should again meet Secretary Bryan at the state department at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, by which time the secretary may be in a position to give an answer to the communication.

The nature of the Japanese objections can be only surmised, as by mutual agreement the parties to the conference refrained from discussing it. That it is based upon the general charge that the California law awaiting Governor Johnson's signature would discriminate against Japanese subjects is to believed to be certain. It is not known whether a violation of the treaty is alleged tr a broad charge made that the principles of international law have been disregarded. However, the entire correspondence so far had on this subject, soon will be given to the public in the United States as well as in Japan.

After his second short conference with the Japanese ambassador Secretary Bryan departed for New York to deliver a speech at a banquet there tonight on the subject of peace, intending to start on his return trip at midnight, to keep his engagement with the ambassador for tomorrow morning.

HIS FINE IS TRIPLED; CONSIDERS SELF LUCKY

Although he had to pay nearly three times as large a fine as he would have under ordinary circumstances for a violation of the garbage ordinance, A. S. Knight, manager of a Peters street drug store, nevertheless considers himself an extremely lucky man. Last Tuesday, when he was summoned to appear in court to answer to charges made by Sanitary Inspector Simpson, he immediately pictured in his mind, possibly because of what he had heard of Recorder Nash Broyles, the "tall, gray walls of a prison." Rather than stand chances of being sent to jail, he left town with his family. It was only when his friends persuaded him that he would only have to pay a fine that he returned.

In the recorder's court he was fined $5.75 for the violation of the garbage ordinance and $10.75 for attempting to evade the orders of the court.

WHIFFS

Good Night, Buck.

WEAVER'S usefulness as a Cracker is at an end. The big right-hander is not himself, and has not been since the opening game of the season. The Billies got thirteen hits and he walked eight men in yesterday's game. This was his "come back." Manager Smith will probably let him go now. Orlie is the season's greatest disappointment to the local manager and fans. He was counted on as a consistent winner. Many regrets will be expressed over his failure to show. Maybe the local manager will not release Weaver, but place him on the suspended list until he shows more reliability.

Sprung Surprise.

TECH sprung a surprise yesterday by handing the Georgia team a 4 to 3 defeat. But this is usually the case when these two teams meet. The dope never runs true to form.

Man Tech Fans.

CALLER KING had a bunch of Tech fans at his detail Friday. When the two runs were put up for Tech in the first and fourth innings, fans on the outside thought Atlanta was winning another game. Mr. King will get the score by innings on this game again today.

Speed Wins Place.

WILSON COLLINS, the fleet-footed Vanderbilt star, is going to get a regular berth on the Boston team, his speed earning him the place. It is reported from Boston that Collins is not going to attempt to pitch, but will try for a berth in the outfield.

A Just Protest.

THE PLAYERS' Fraternity have made a just protest to the powers that be in baseball. It is their third attempt on the same issue. The following statement, recently issued from Chicago, speaks for itself:

"Baseball magnates who are not averse to making a little money on the side by allowing orchards to paint signs on the scoreboards at the various parks—for a consideration—are facing trouble. Members of the Baseball Players' fraternity, an organization composed of the employees of the magnates, are up in arms against the practice of covering the boards with white paint and propose to take the matter up to the commission in an endeavor to bring about a reform. It is asserted by the players that when the scoreboards are almost covered with white paint it is an impossibility to see the ball against them and that the lives of the players are thereby endangered. Already several of the players have been more or less seriously injured."

Rival Keystoners.

LARRY DOYLE, of the New York Giants, and Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics, keystone guardians on their respective clubs, are setting the pace with the willow in the two National organizations. Collins is slamming the globule at a .490 clip and Doyle is pummeling the sphere at a .349 mark, leading the two batting lists. Collins, Speaker and J. Collins have made 24 hits in the American league and lead in that respect. Thinker is the only man in the National league who has made that number. All these figures include the games played May 1.

Run Getters.

FRANK SCHULTE, the home run hitter of the Chicago Cubs, leads the National league in the number of runs scored including the games played may 1, with 16 tallies. Tris Speaker is the leader in the American league, with the same number of tallies.

Some Player.

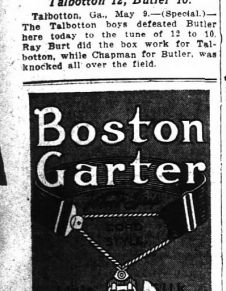
DAVE ROBERTSON, the great right fielder of the Mobile Gulls, promises to eclipse all batting records in the Southern league if he keeps up the pace he has started. George Bausewein, Cracker twirler, who passed through Atlanta Friday enroute to Charlotte, says that he is one of the greatest ball players he has ever seen. a tremendous hitter, fast as a streak and a wonderful fielder. "This fellow has no weakness" is the big right hander's compliment of him.

Big Records.

ROBERTSON is hitting at a .444 clip, including the games played Friday. May 8, making 36 hits in 81 times up and counting 21 runs. Six of his hits have been two baggers, 3 three baggers and 5 homers. His total mark is 63. Not content with this, Robertson leads the league in stolen bases, with 13 purloins. Johnny McGraw is probably sorry he farmed this fellow out now.

Talbotton 12, Butler 10.

Talbotton, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Talbotton boys defeated Butler here today to the tune of 12 to 10. Ray Burt did the box work for Talbottom, while Chapman for Butler, was knocked all over the field.



Cap's Hitting and Fielding Only Redeeming Feature; Weaver Given Fine Lacing

By B. G. Betty.

Montgomery, Ala., May 9.—(Special.)—Atlanta was completely snowed under this afternoon and Montgomery took the second game of the series. The score was 10 to 2.

The fielding of Whitey Alpermann and his batting also, was a bright feature of the game from an Atlanta viewpoint. He accepted fourteen chances without a bobble, several of them very difficult ones, and out of four times at the bat he got a two-base hit and two singles. He was the only visiting batter that didn't strike out.

Curley Brown was on the mound for Montgomery and got a bad start, but after the first part of the game settled down and was never in trouble. He gave up six hits, however, only one was made off his delivery up to the fifth inning, and that was one by Alpermann in the first inning.

Brown Fans 13.

Brown struck out 13 batters, which is the record so far this year for the Southern league. Brown walked five and hit one and made one wild pitch. His wild pitch figured largely in the first run made by Atlanta.

Jantzen and Welchonce both made circus catches that thrilled the big ladies' day crowd.

Montgomery had lost so many games recently that Dobbs decided he would see if by taking the first bats it would change the luck, so Atlanta took the field in the first inning with the home team at the bat.

Weaver couldn't locate the plate with Breen up and he was walked. Wares then singled to right and Breen went to third. Jantzen popped up to Agler, but Elwert's single scored Breen.

Atlanta came back in the second half and scored one run. Long was given free transportation to first, took second on a wild pitch, went to third on Agler's infield out. Wares to Katina, and scored on Alpermann's hit to right field.

Bills Score Five.

In the third inning every man on the Montgomery team faced Weaver. Breen drew his second pass of the afternoon, was sacrificed by Wares, and scored on Jantzen's hot line drive several feet over Smith's head that went to the left field fence on a line. Elwert singled over second and Jantzen scored.

Sloan forced Elwert at second Weaver then hit Kutina, forcing Sloan to second. Both scored when Rohe let Spratt's clean single get through him. Spratt went to third on the error and scored when Donahue hit one of Weaver's offerings to the left field fence.

In the fourth Montgomery put another across. Breen drew his third base on balls, took second on Wares' scratch hit over the keystone. Breen went to third when Wares was forced at second on Jantzen's roller to Alpermann. Elwert hit a long fly to center and Breen scored.

Battery Again.

Atlanta scored their last run in the sixth. Agler, first man up, struck out. Alpermann then hit to right for two bases and scored on Welchonce's safety to the same territory.

In the seventh. Sloan opened with a single. Sloan opened with a safety to left and took third on Kutina's single to center and Welchonce's error. Kutina stole second and both scored when Wares turned loose a wild pitch. Spratt was walked and scored on Donahue's second two-bagger.

Coveleskie also pitched well, except in three innings, when bunched hits and stolen bases counted runs for Mobile. For the first time in five days Mobile failed to register a home run, Jacobson's fielding and Robertson's work at bat, on the paths and in running, featured.

New Orleans, May 9.—"Dummy" Taylor, the former major league star, puzzled the Nashville team today and New Orleans won 4 to 1. Dummy Taylor gave up only one hit during the first eight innings and only one runner reached second base. In the ninth singles by Lindsay and Daley and two infield outs allowed the visitors to score a run. Snedecor and Spencer made sensational catches.

Three Georgia Stars Who Are Playing Against Tech Jackets in Athens

JOHN MORRIS.

TIMEON BOWDEN.

RUCKER GINN.

Morris is the Georgia pitcher who will be sent in against the Yellow Jackets this afternoon at Athens. Ginn is the Red and Black's best batter and run-getter, and leads the batting order. Timeon Bowden is the team's all-round man. He can fill in at any position on the team but pitch.

Wooten Opens With Homer; Georgia Takes An Ascension And Tech Wins Game 4-3

By Clark Howell, Jr.

Athens, Ga., May. 9.—(Special.)—Tech 4, Georgia 3. This tells the story of the biggest baseball surprise sprung on the college baseball world in many years.

The dope all veered towards a victory for the Red and Black, and the local team was confident, over-confident, tha the Yellow Jackets would succumb to the rain of hits which had heretofore been forthcoming from the bats.

But the dope proved awry, as the Athens crew was able to garner but seven bingles from the twisters of one Mr. Eubanks, who incidentally kept them so well scattered that only once did two come in the same inning, and then no tally was registered.

It is true the Techites connected for but four singles, but this quartet, aided by Georgia's ten errors, scored an equal number of runs.

Bad Fielding Tells.

The contest hung by on the fielding of the two teams, and the boys from Atlanta fielded in big league style, while the University team played the ragged-est game of fielding shown this season.

When it comes to picking stars for Heisman's crew, Wooten and Pound deserve the laurel wreaths, while Eubanks is entitled to all praise for the article of hurling he delivered for his teammates.

But the entire team played jam-up ball. Wooten accepted six chances in the center garden with unerring accuracy, in addition to sending the ball to the ditch in the initial inning for the complete circuit.

Pound saved the day for his team in the last round when, with Ginn on first base and two down, Harrison landed on the sphere for what looked to be a four-base smash by making one of the prettiest circus catches ever seen on Sanford field.

Credit deserved to win his game with any kind of support, allowing only four hits, but errors were forthcoming whenever men were on bases and several times on comparatively easy chances the locals booted the pill or heaved it wildly.

Hutchens played decidedly the best game for the Cunningham crew, knocking out three safeties out of four attempts, in addition to catching in great style.

Old Stars Umpire.

Harry Harmon, an old Georgia star, and Harry Holland, Tech's famous third baseman, arbitrated the affair and kept the fray free from wrangling and squabbling, which has so often marred the annual battles.

The Yellow Jackets got a two-run lead in he premier stanza. Wooten, the first man up, laced the hide to the left-field ditch for a home run. Moore and Pitts were retired on infield outs, but Montague got life on Clements' error. Pound was safe on Harrison's boot, Montague going to second; Montague scoring on Harrison's failure to stop Corley's throw to second to catch him off second.

Georgia shoved one across in the first on a base on balls to Ginn, a stolen base, a sacrifice hit and Mc-Whorter's sacrifice fly to left.

The Jackets got two more in the fourth. Donaldson led off with a hit, went to second on Corley's boot of Attridge's easy grounder, but Donaldson was forced at third on Eubanks' grounder to pitcher. Wooten hit to short and on Clements attempt to catch Attridge at third, all were safe. Attridge scored when Corley walked Moore and Eubanks scored on Pitts' sacrifice fly to left.

Georgia's Last Chance.

The Red and Black annexed two in the seventh when Clements walked, stole second, Ginn being safe at first on Attridge's muff of his easy pop and Clements scored on Harrison's hit to left, Ginn going to third; Ginn scored on McWhorter's sacrifice fly to center field.

The Yellow Jackets were not able to get a hit after the fourth inning and got but two men on first. The Red and Black rallied in the last two innings, only to be retired by sensational fielding by the Jackets.

The game tomorrow will be witnessed by the entire Tech student body, and should be a hummer, as the Georgians are determined to come back, while the Tech bunch are equally determined to repeat their success of today.

LAGRANGE IS WINNER OF GEORGIA-ALABAMA ATTENDANCE TROPHY

LaGrange, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—In addition to winning today's game in a sensational manner, LaGrange has also won the attendance trophy of the Georgia-Alabama league. More than 1,800 people crowded the grounds on opening day, which is by several hundred more than any other opening game of the towns in the league. The LaGrange team is now in first-class condition. All those who have been out of the game are ready to play and the outlook for the team to win from now on is splendid.

Tennis Trials.

Tuxeda, N. Y., May 9.—H. H. Hackett and R. H. Little, favored for the American international tennis team, along with N. W. Niles and A. S. Dabney, the Boston pair, were the winners in the Round Robin doubles here today. In the first match, Niles and Dabney defeated William A. Larned and Robert Drennan. In the other match, Hackett and Little defeated William J. Clothier, of Philadelphia, and C. F. Watson, Jr.

The matches will be continued tomorrow, when it is expected the Australian team will arrive for practice.

The Hardest to Do.

Chilon being asked what were the most difficult things, replied, "To keep secrets, to make a good use of leisure and to bear being wronged."

"WALLY SMITH BEST PLAYER IN LEAGUE"

EDITOR'S NOTE.—This tribute to the Crackers' third baseman was printed in the Nashville Tennessean and American on Friday.

"Wally Smith, the big third baseman of the Atlanta team, is by far the best ball player I have seen in the Southern league this season," declared a well-known athletic authority of this city, who is a splendid judge of ball players. "He is a better man, in my estimation, than Red Smith," he continued, "and should go up to the majors again at the end of this season.

"Smith is not only a sensational fielder, but he is a fine hitter, being apt to hit the ball to any part of the field. This was denoted when he put a ball over the right field fence and hit the left field fence in that local ball park during the same game. He has a splendid throwing arm and is fast on the bases in addition. I am confident that he would make a fine third baseman for some of the weaker major league clubs."

Field Day at Cambridge.

Cambridge, Mass., May 9.—More than 200 wearers of the Crimson will participate in various athletic contests in which Harvard is entered tomorrow.

The major events will be the varsity race with Princeton and Pennsylvania on the Charles river; the track meet with Cornell, and the baseball game with Holy Cross at Worcester.

The four Cambridge class crews also will have their annual races.

CLEMSON TIES COUNT WITH AUBURN NINE

Auburn, Ala., May 9.—(Special.)—Clemson won the second game of the series from Auburn here this afternoon by the score of 18 to 4. The visitors got off with a good lead due to Locke's wildness and Driver, who relieved him, was hit hard during the balance of the game. The series is now even, and the deciding game will be played tomorrow with Ezell on the mound for Clemson and Davis twirling for Auburn.

Valdosta, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The best game of the season on the home ground, Valdosta handed Cordele the second defeat of the series this afternoon, 7 to 3. Both Sellers and Gillespie were hit rather freely, each giving up 11 hits, but the hitting of Valdosta was more opportune. Cordele's errors aiding materially. Valdosta fielded sharply. Wassun, Brozier and Franks made circus catches in the outfield.

Americus lost the game in the first inning when Pitcher Semms allowed five men to romp across the rubber. Semms was relieved after the first inning by Bennett, who pitched good ball and held the visitors down to a single basis thereafter. Americus scored two in the seventh. Medlock, for Waycross, knocked a homer, which won him applause.

Roth, for the visitors, pitched in good form all during the game, and held the locals when hits meant runs. BAN'S BIG STICK.

Investigation Being Planned for Naps-Red Sox Fight.

Chicago, May 9.—President Johnson, of the American league, last night ordered an investigation of the fist fight between players of the Boston and Cleveland clubs at Cleveland on Wednesday afternoon. He sent a message of inquiry to Umpire Connelly, who replied that he knew nothing about the occurrence, except that what he had read in the newspapers.

President Johnson then instructed the umpire to immediately ascertain the facts.

At the invitation of President Comisky, of the Chicago Americans, Mr. Johnson has promised to accompany the White Sox and the New York Nationals on their world tour next winter.

Chevy Chase Tennis.

Washington, May 9.—Brilliant playing marked the second day of the sixth annual men's tennis tournament of the Chevy Chase club.

All of the out-of-town players who had been picked to win were victors with the single exception of Mrs. Lawson, beaten in the semi-final round of the ladies' singles by Miss Eva Baker, champion of the District of Columbia, in the banner event of the day. F. C. Inman and C. M. Bull, of New York; R. L. Jones, of Saratoga Springs, and Wallace Johnson, of Philadelphia, all disposed of Washington entrants.

Inman and Bull easily won from Reid and Stidman, of Washington, in the doubles, and Bull, with Miss Marjorie Smith, of this city, defeated Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle, local players, in the mixed doubles.

Weaver Sent Home; Furchner to Twirl; Chappelle Signed

Harry Bailey May Get Into Today's Game—Billy May Land New Pitcher by Tonight.

By Dick Jemison.

Pitcher Buck Weaver has been sent home to Atlanta by Manager Smith. Waivers have been asked on him and if the other Southern league clubs waive the big right-hander will be placed on the ineligible list.

If some club refuses to waive, Manager Smith will turn Orlie over to them for the waiver price. If he secures waivers, Weaver will be given instructions to work out daily at Ponce de Leon to try to regain his former cunning on the mound, and if he does, he will be signed up again when the team gets back from the present road trip.

Chappelle Signed.

"Bell Cord" Bill Chappelle reported to Manager Smith in Montgomery Friday morning, and, with the asking of waivers on Weaver, was signed up and may pitch the Sunday game against the Billikens.

Pitcher Al Furchner will make his debut against the Billikens this afternoon. Manager Smith stated over the long-distance phone last night that this fellow, who is a big right-hander, looked pretty good in the workouts. If he shows any control, Manager Smith believes he will make a good man.

Billy wired his friend, Connie Mack, Friday, asking him if he had any pitchers. Connie's wire was terse and to the point: "Have no pitchers to spare," he wired.

Manager Smith announced, however, that he had a line out on a good pitcher, and that the deal might be closed Saturday. "If I land this fellow," said Billy, "he will strengthen our staff wonderfully."

Bailey May Play.

The local mogul said that there was a possibility of Harry Bailey getting back in the game today, although it was more than likely that it would be Sunday before "Shawnee Bill" can get into harness.

Rohe has not been showing any form as utility man, and it is hinted that the local manager will dispose of him shortly and land a hustling youngster that he is said to have lines out for.

Rohe has been catching the flies all right, but his arm is said to be gone, and he has not been able to hit the ball safely with any degree of regularity.

When asked how Bisland looked, Manager Smith said: "He'll do. He looks O. K. to me. He has not hit anything for the past two days, but as that he has been hitting them hard, but right straight at someone."

Not only is Manager Smith disgusted at the showing of the pitchers, but the umpires have commented to him on the poor control of the boxmen and the stolen bases that have been recorded against Atlanta catchers should be charged to the pitchers, and not the catchers, if the rules permitted, according to the judges of play.

Marksmen at Dawson.

Dawson, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Dawson Gun club entertained today many of the noted marksmen who attended the annual state shoot at Americus yesterday. Among these visitors were John Phillip Sousa, Dalle Vaughy, Pete Gilbert, George Maxwell and Homer Clark. The guests were taken automobiling this morning. At noon they enjoyed a splendid barbecue at Pondsville. This afternoon they participated in an exhibition shoot. All the visitors and local club members made fine scores. The visitors were entertained at an elegant banquet tonight.

Wilson to Pelicans.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 9.—Pitcher Finish E. Wilson, southpaw who came to the Cleveland club from the Knoxville, Tenn., club last fall, today was released to New Orleans Southern league team.

KENTUCKY DERBY.

Racing Classic to Be Run at Churchill Downs.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—What is considered the cream of 3-year-olds in America will face the barrier tomorrow in the thirty-ninth renewal of the historic Kentucky Derby, to be run over the Churchill Downs course. The track is fast and fair weather is predicted.

To the winner will go the title of champion 3-year-old of America, as the contest will be over a mile and a quarter route. The race this year is distinctly between the east and west, and the east figuring to hold the upperhand from the fact that in Ten Point, owned by A. L. Aste. The eastern colt doubtless will go to the post heavy favorite, as Hawthorne, the winter book favorite, is out because of illness. Foundation will carry a great amount of Kentucky money, as many think the erratic Lexington colt has a good chance. Backers of these two entrants base their opinions not only upon the way the two horses worked as 2-year-olds, but in the easy fashion they have disposed of their fields this spring.

It appears tonight that there would be five starters, as follows:

Ten Point, 117—Wilson.
Foundation, 117—Loftus.
Yankee Notions, 117—Glass
Prince Hennis, 117—Peak.
Jimmie Gill, 110—Borel.

Chicago, May 9.—Chicago made it two straight from Washington today by bunching hits with errors of the visitors and Gallia's wildness. Scott held the visitors to five hits. Borton started to play in the first half of the first; but owing to a slight injury to his wrist during practice, he retired in favor of Hournier.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 9.—The first victory of the first western trip of the Boston club was won from Cleveland today 3 to 1. Each team batted hard, Boston getting 13 hits and Cleveland 7 off O'Brien, three of which were scratch hits. With the score 1 and 1 in the eighth and two out, Lewis singled, Gardner doubled and Engle tripled, bringing in the winning runs for Boston.

Detroit, Mich., May 9.—Detroit not only failed to hit with men on bases, but played miserably in the field and New York took the third game of the series, 9 to 0. New York mixed hits with Detroit's misplays and won with ease.

Warhop, whose greatest ambition is to beat Detroit, was taken out of the box in the third inning. Willett had singled, Baker drew a base on balls and the little pitcher had given Louden two wide ones when Ford went to the rescue. Thereafter Detroit never threatened.

Bush's fine fielding was the only bright spot in Detroit's defensive play.

St. Louis, Mo., May 9.—St. Louis broke Philadelphia's winning streak today, winning 7 to 3. St. Louis knocked Houck out of the box in the first inning and hit Wyckoff hard. The locals scored five runs in the first on singles by Shotten and Pratt, two bases on balls, an error, a sacrifice fly and Brief's triple. In the fifth singles by Williams, Brief and Wallace and a sacrifice fly netted the locals two more runs.

Philadelphia scored in the second on Baker's double, an error and an infield out. In the sixth Collins and McInnis singled and scored an Walsh's triple.

The unusual spectacle of seeing umpires reverse a decision three times came up in the seventh inning. With two out and a runner on first for Philadelphia, Oldring hit to Wallace, who threw to first. After fielding the ball, Brief fell. Umpire Ferguson called Oldring out and then reversed his decision. St. Louis players then appealed to O'Loughlin, who called the side out.

The Athletics then surrounded O'Loughlin and after consulting Ferguson, he called the Browns back on the field and declared Oldring safe.

SOCIETY TO BE FORMED FOR STUDY OF CANCER

Washington, May 9.—Plans for formation of a society for the study and prevention of cancer were announced here today by Frederick L. Hoffman, a director of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which closed its annual meeting here today. The new health body will work along lines already found effective by the tuberculosis fighters, in the effort being of an educational nature.

Mr. Hoffman announced there would be a meeting in New York next week of a committee to formulate definite plans for the society.

This year in the United States 75,000 persons will die from cancer and in the civilized world a half million, according to figures given out by Mr. Hoffman. The death rate from the disease is increasing 2 1-2 per cent a year.

Mr. Hoffman said that while much still is to be learned concerning the disease, certain known facts make the work of prevention to some extent possible. He added that form corsets worn by women, heat on the lips from the stem of a clay pipe, growths caused by tar by those in the pitch industry, the eating of too much food and brook trout, are among known and probable causes of the disease.

GOSSIP AT CAPITOL

Atlanta Crematory Case.

The Atlanta crematory injunction case was argued before the state supreme court yesterday morning and both sides were represented by attorneys.

The case originated in the superior court when J. M. Renfroe and others sought to enjoin the city and the Destructor company from carrying out the contract for the $376,800 plant. Judge Bell refused to grant the injunction and the plaintiffs appealed. The contention is that the contract is illegal because the city obligated itself to pay money in future years.

The case of the plaintiffs was argued before the supreme court by Attorney C. P. Goree. City Attorney James L. Mayson and Assistant City Attorney W. D. Ellis, Jr., represented the city of Atlanta, and the Destructor company, which is handling the new crematory, was represented by Attorney S. N. Evins.

THE LATEST FASHION NOTE

Says: "It is a wise precaution against getting holes in delicate hosiery to powder the shoes before putting them on." Many people sprinkle the famous antiseptic powder, Allen's Foot-Ease, into the shoes, and find that it saves the cost ten times over in keeping holes from hosiery as well as lessening friction and consequent smarting and aching of the feet.

WITH THE THEATERS

"The Girl From Out Yonder."

(At the Atlanta.)

This afternoon Miss Billy Long and company will be seen in "The Girl From Out Yonder," at a 25-cent matinee. Tonight will be the last performance of this popular play, which has been received with more enthusiasm than anything produced to date by the Atlanta company. Next week the company will offer a fine farce comedy in "Are You a Mason?" which has been greeted by packed audiences wherever presented. The comedy is a rare laughable play in which members of the company at the Atlanta appear to particularly good advantage. Miss Tinsley Harrison is cast for a good part, and three new members are introduced for the first time, all being experienced players of recognized ability.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

If you would like to see a pretty woman, who has some pretty gowns, and knows just how to wear them to get the best effect, then go to the Forsyth this week, and have a look at Belle Story, one of the headliners of the week. If you have a desire to laugh yourself sick, then be sure to be there when the burglars organize their union. And if you like dancing, the Hart's Six Steppers will prove to you that never before did you know what real dancing was. All in all, it's some entertaining bill, and the management promises for next week a program just as good, and perhaps a little better.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL OF THE MARKETS

STRENGTH WAS SHOWN EARLY IN THE SESSION

But Cotton Market Weakened in Afternoon—The Close Was Steady.

New York, May 9.—The cotton market showed considerable strength during today's earlier trading, but weakened in the afternoon, and closed steady, net unchanged to 4 points lower.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 4 points on covering by some of yesterday's sellers, who seemed to be disappointed that the weather map showed no trace of the showers or scattering rains privately reported in the eastern belt yesterday. The eastern belt forecast for generally clear weather added to the nervousness over the new crop outlook, and while Liverpool made a somewhat indifferent showing, this was attributed to realizing for over the holidays. At any rate, the market here was worth higher during the morning on quite an active demand from shorts, trade interests and houses with foreign connections. July contracts sold at 11.62 and October at 11.06, or about 8 to 11 points net higher, but at this level offerings increased and when the market began to ease off, selling became more aggressive.

Renewed reports of showers in the eastern belt were partly confirmed by the official weather report, which in its forecast for unsettled weather and showers in the western belt was taken as confirming private prediction that the low barometer "low" in the west would work across the country, causing more or less precipitation in the belt early next week. This doubtless encouraged the bull selling movement in connection with a bearish view of the week-end figures, but offerings were well enough taken by local bulls or by continued covering to give the market quite a steady undertone at the close, which was a couple of points up from the lowest.

Private cables reported that Manchester was a good buyer in Liverpool late today and there was nothing in the general news to indicate any material change in the southern spot market.

Cotton: Spot closed steady; midland uplands, 12.00; midland gulf, 12.25. Sales, 6,046 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, May 9.—The price of cotton moved within narrow limits today, the trade generally showing disinclination to take any stop situation. The news of the day was mixed and did not tend to bring about operations one way or the other. Little outside trading was in evidence, room traders and scalping being most of the business.

The opening was steady at an advance of 4 to 5 points, on good trade buying, reports of drouth in the eastern sections of the belt. Intensifying the effect of these complaints was the forecast of continued fair weather in the Atlantic.

Private messages from Liverpool said this continental spinners were taking hold of the new crop months and expressed themselves as a free buyer in the afternoon. At the highest the trading months were 7 to 8 points over yesterday's close.

Toward noon the market commenced to fall off, on those interested in realizing on the beneficial rains recently in that state and claiming excellent crop prospects over a large area. Moderate short selling and profit taking by scalping longs pressed on the market which gradually lost a total of 4 to 5 points under the final quotations of yesterday.

The close was steady at a net decline of 2 to 3 points.

John F. Black & Co.

New York, May 9.—There was a show of strength during early trading today. Liverpool leading the way. After Liverpool closed, however, the market lost tone. Some Wall street people are talking about a July corner, and they bought July contracts quite freely, but this month do not seem to be those who ever taken to action and, as spot interests are quietly selling them on the hard spots, there may be a change in the July situation before July comes around. July was stronger than the new crops today, closing only 1 point down, while October was down 3 points, but July and October closed at exactly the same figure as they closed a week ago today.

Liverpool will be closed tomorrow and Monday for the Whitsuntide holidays.

SALL GRAIN ADVANCED ON LIBERAL BUYING

Wheat Closed With Gain of One-Fourth to One Cent—Corn and Oats Also Up.

Chicago, May 9.—Lightness of supplies and a buying flurry in May wheat today brought an upturn to the entire grain market. A net gain of 1-4@1-8 to 7-8@1c was made in wheat. Corn finished 1-8 to 1-4@3-8c higher and oats 1-8@1-4 to 1-4@3-8c up, but provisions closed unchanged to 5c off.

Buying of more than 250,000 bushels of May wheat was made by strong firms about the middle of the session. That option bounded up 1 5-8c at once and sympathically July and September also rose, although not so sharply as in May. The heavy buying was largely in the hands of traders who had oversold yesterday, in anticipation of the government's bearish report on winter wheat condition. When the May flurry struck the pit the market had already begun to harden. Supplies were found to be very light at the opening and values improved in spite of lower cables (except a fractional gain at Paris), fine weather for the growing domestic crop, large primary arrivals and rather moderate shipping trade. The ensuing bulge was checked after it had run a brief course, by free selling by large elevator concerns. A slight rally came near the close on advices of fair export sales and the finish was very firm. Primary receipts of wheat today 611,000 bushels; last year 475,000 bushels. Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour equalled 357,000 bushels.

Corn was helped by reported crop damage from cold rains in Argentina and by delays to domestic shipments, due to wet weather. Strength in western cash market also stiffened prices. Cash sales were on persistent reports of crop damage.

Provision trade was very light. Such little strength as the market showed was due largely to better prices at the yard.

ALMOST AT STANDSTILL WAS THE STOCK MARKET

Movement Was Without Importance—Lack of Demand for Stocks.

New York, May 9.—After a slight depression in the early trading, followed by an upturn, which put the Harriman stocks and a few others a point above yesterday's close, the market come almost to a halt today. In one hour only 8,000 shares were traded in. The movement, as a whole, was without importance and served merely to emphasize the lack of demand for securities and the reluctance of capitalists to take a definite position in the market at this time.

Failure of the market to rebpond to yesterday's brilliant crop report en-courage bear traders to put out new lides at the outset, but they were unable to bring out long stock and quickly reversed their positions. The ease with which the market rallied indicated a strong undertone, but this apparently was due to nothing more than a sold-out condition.

The prevailing spirit of conservatism found further justification in the news of the day. Forecasts of the quarterly United States steel report indicate a considerable falling off in orders. Lower pig iron prices were quoted and in other branches of industry a slowing down was reported. The emphatic vote by which the tariff bill passed the house and the situation arising from California's stand on the Japanese question were other influences which played their part in restricting speculative activity. There was some further pressure against standard investment shares, such as have proved an unsettling feature of recent trading. New York Central, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Hudson and Lackawanna were among the investment stocks which touched new low prices for the year. Rumely preferred broke nearly 4 points on the announcement that action regarding the dividend would be postponed.

Known movements of currency for the week indicated that the gain in cash from the interior had more than offset the loss due to gold exports. A gain on the week 'of about $3,000,000 was forecast.

The bond market was irregular, with important issues as a rule well sustained. Total sales, par value, $1,40(,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

COTTON THE PAST WEEK; REVIEW OF THE MARKET

New York, May 9.—More optimistic foreign trade advices, a somewhat modified idea of the prospective acreage and less favorable private crop reports from the eastern belt, caused a considerable buying movement in the cotton market during the past week, but offerings increased above the 11 cents for new crop positions and the market yesterday lost part of its gain on reports of showers in droughty sections east of the river, and a bearish view of the week-end figures.

There has been a tendency in local circles to attribute the bulk of the demand to shorts, but there has also been more or less support from trade sources and houses with foreign connections. The improved political position in Europe has been followed by very much more favorable reports from commercial spinning circles, and bullish disposed traders claim that European spinners are beginning to hedge their forward requirements by purchases of new crop months around the prevailing level of prices. Meanwhile, southern spot markets, while showing occasional concessions, have not exhibited any general weakness, and as a result reports of replanting or poor stands began to come in from the new crop. July shorts showed signs of uneasiness, owing to the reduction in the local stock which is being shipped out to Liverpool, Manchester, Bremen and Russia.

Estimates of the probable total shipments from here before the movement is over range from about 30,000 to 60,000 bales, with the certified supply now 92,000 bales, compared with 196,-000 bales at the first of the month. These shipments are not apprehended, and with very little protection for the July short interest, but buying did not become general and was only moderated on the advance was doubtless encouraged by reports that prominent Fall River mills are to close for an indefinite period, beginning on Monday and a feeling that a permanent supply of surface moisture in the eastern belt would quickly revive bearish views as to the first government condition report due early next month.

TRADE REVIEWED BY COMMERCIAL AGENCIES

New York, May 9.—Dun's review tomorrow will say that in spite of some curtailment of orders for merchandise affected by pending tariff changes, the unusually favorable crop conditions have resulted in a marked increase of confidence throughout the south. The passage of the tariff bill by the house of representatives brings the end of this element of uncertainty measurably nearer. Meanwhile it is a most encouraging fact that reports from 30 cities show a gain in building activity for April of 1 per cent as compared with the same month in 1912, a heavy decrease in New York city, being more than offset by gain elsewhere, particularly in Chicago, and at most points in the west and on the Pacific slope.

Production of iron and steel continues to be close to capacity, but new business is less insistent, and deliveries are being made more promptly.

In textile lines warmer and more settled weather has greatly improved the volume of spring business, although merchants are still conservative in placing filling-in orders.

There is a moderate gain in the shoe trade, and as stocks are generally low, it is easier for salesmen to obtain orders. There is a better outlook for leather, but hides continue easy.

Local speculative markets are dull and this fact accounts largely for the decrease in bank clearings from last year, which, however, is comparatively small, amounting to only 0.7 per cent this week. Recovery from western flood effects is now fairly complete.

Railroad earnings in April increased 2.7 per cent over last year. Financial sentiment in the east is less cheerful than mercantile sentiment in the west, but money locally continues easy, in spite of renewed gold exports to Paris. Heavy refunding of corporate issues is, however, due during the current month and the next.

The best feature of the situation is the fact that every condition favors large crops. In addition to the fine exhibit for winter wheat made in the government report, the outlook for cotton is also encouraging, though there have been some reports of frosts which fell in the eastern section of the belt. The foreign commerce at the port of New York during the most recent week amounted to $33,448,883, against $32,144,209 last year.

Less trouble is now being felt by iron and steel plants, and the relief from congested railroad conditions makes more business possible.

The recent rise in temperature effected a marked improvement in the dry goods trade, stimulating the demand in many lines.

Commercial failures this week in the United States are 274, against 263 the corresponding week of last year. Failures in Canada number 29.

NEWSPAPER MEN NABBED BY GOVERNOR HATFIELD

Huntington, W. Va., May 9.—W. H. Thompson, editor of the socialist and labor Star; Elmer Rumble, a reporter, and R. M. Kephart, George Gillespie and F. M. Strum, connected with the paper, which was confiscated at 3 o'clock this morning by the militia, acting under orders of Governor Hatfield, were taken to Charleston late today. The men were in charge of officers of the national guard.

An attack directed against Governor Hatfield in connection with the coal strike troubles of Kanawha county, under martial law, recently printed in the socialist publication, caused the raiding of the plant and the arrests. The warrant authorizing the military to take the men into custody does not provide that they be brought to trial, but orders that they be arrested and confined in the county jail as long as necessary, or until further orders from the governor.

The men left for Charleston without protest and without making an appeal to the civil courts.

GIRL RAN AWAY TO ESCAPE BEING MARRIED

Sharon, Pa., May 9.—Teresa Wolf, 16 years old, daughter of Albert Wolf, who disappeared about two weeks ago, has been located on a farm near Sharon. The girl said her parents insisted upon her marrying a man she did not love.

"I won't get married," pretty little Teresa sobbed. "I am not old enough, and, anyway, nobody is ever going to pick out a husband for me. Father wanted me to marry a man that I don't want." The girl was taken home.

JAB FROM HAT PIN BLINDS MILLINER'S EYE

Fayette, Mo., May 9.—As a result of a jab in the eye, received while she was showing a hat to a customer in a millinery store here last week, Mrs. Ida Henderson, a trimmer, will lose one eye, and it is feared that she may become blind in the other.

The long twelve-inch hat pin struck Mrs. Henderson's eye as she turned to adjust a hat.

The accident has caused an agitation among Fayette women against the use of dangerously long pins. Many dealers have pledged themselves to destroy long ones they have in stock and to order none more than 8 inches

DANCES OF THE RICH CALLED RUIN OF GIRLS

Philadelphia, Pa., May 9.—That the effort of the working girl to follow the example of her society sister, especially in dancing the turkey trot, and other lewd dances, does more to wreck the lives of working girls than the low wages paid them, was the assertion made by Charles Vesin at the National Association of Hosiery and Underwear Manufacturers.

"The turkey trot and bunny hug have had far more to do in recent years with the downfall of factory girls than the scale of wages," he said.

"The girls feel free to practice what their richer sisters practice at the gathering places of the elect. The investigations do not touch the society rich who set these bad examples."

ADMITS ACCUSING O'HARA

Would Appear Against Lieut. Governor Before Probers.

Chicago, May 9.—Miss Maude Robinson, of Springfield, Ill., admitted here today that she signed the affidavit in connection with the charges against Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara, of Illinois, before the senate committee investigating committee by Chief Deputy Sheriff Richards Sullivan, of Sangamon county.

Miss Robinson denied positively that anything alleged in the paper would justify her arrest, or that she committed perjury in signing it. The contents of the affidavit haven't been made public.

"I have done nothing I could be arrested for," said Miss Robinson. "I have not been served with summons to appear before the senate committee, but I will do so and tell what I know. I will not give out any statements."

Miss Robinson said she had acted on her own initiative in the matter. Miss Robinson is 26 years old. She was born in Charleston, Ill., where she was a church singer until a few years ago. Two years ago she was married to "Jack" Shriver, of Charleston. She obtained a divorce from Shriver with permission to resume her maiden name on April 17, 1913, at Springfield, Ill., where she resided with her mother during the proceedings. Her attorney was C. F. Mortimer, who also appeared for R. M. Sullivan, deputy sheriff, when Sullivan presented to the senate committee the affidavit accusing O'Hara.

DIVORCE AND POVERTY ARE DEFIED BY A WIFE

Warren, Ohio, May 9.—When the courts gave Orrin D. Hahn a divorce, his wife refused to abide by the judge's decision.

She sobbed out her story when brought before Probate Judge Anderson for contempt of court. It was a story of their belief in the sanctity of marriage vows, despite hardship, poverty and the utterly unfeeling court officers regard her tale of her pitiful existence and the patience with which she bore her lot as a living rebuke to the divorce laws.

Hahn married her from a luxurious home and parents who lavished on her all that wealth could buy. Against their will she became the bride of Hahn, who soon tired of her and for several years has been trying to rid himself of her, but she refused to leave him.

The sheriff found Mrs. Hahn in a shack with Hahn, a boy of 17 and a girl of 15. The roof was made of tin cans. There was nothing in the shanty but a bed, a stand and a stove. Little food was in the place.

TICKLES HER HUSBAND INTO DESERTING HER

Pittsburg, May 9.—Mrs. Mary Hagenough, through her fondness for seeing her husband, John J. Hagenough, laugh, tickled her way into divorce court. She says she never gave him cause to be dissatisfied with her, and the only times she would have trouble with him was when she would tickle him to see him laugh.

At first, she declared, he seemed to enjoy her tickling, but finally he lost patience and berated her. One day she tickled him a little harder than usual, and he knocked her down, she asserts. He then told her that he "had enough" and was "going for all time." She says she hasn't seen him since.

PRISONER WHO MADE ESCAPE THRO' SEWER IS AGAIN CAPTURED

Peoria, Ill., May 9.—Clyde Stratton, the convict who made a sensational escape from the government prison at Leavenworth on March 29 by crawling through a half mile of sewer and who is under arrest at Pekin, Ill., near here, on a charge of burglary, tonight confessed that he is the man wanted at Leavenworth prison. Stratton further admitted he was familiar with the escape of Warden Thomas, the diamond merchant, Logue, in Chicago, and that he was an automobile bandit in Chicago for four days. Stratton was captured a few days a go when he and a companion were accused of robbing a store at Mackinaw, Ill. The men were then removed to the jail at Pekin for identification. They compared the pictures in his rogue's gallery and identified Stratton, who finally broke down and admitted his identity. Stratton, in talking of his case, said:

"I had been in Leavenworth only a short time when I decided to escape through the sewer. I had confidence in this method after I had previously made my get-away from the Columbus, Ohio, state prison on two different occasions.

"Two companions started with me to make the trip through the sewer at Leavenworth, but turned back. I made my way through the sewer for half a mile. The sewer gas seemed to affect my two companions, but it didn't affect me. I decided that factory girls than the scale of wages," he the worse for the trip. I secured a suit of clothes from a farmer and was on my way to Chicago within a few days."

Stratton talked of the Logue robbery in Chicago and of the raids by the Stratton gang here last week, when the auto bandit game for four nights, but didn't like it.

Sheriff Pleuel said tonight it was the intention of the county authorities to hold the prisoner and try him on the charge of robbing the Mackinaw store.

PRIZE SOUTHERN QUILT AT LAST COMES TO LIGHT

Mrs. Annie Henry, Wallerville, Miss., certainly must be the prize quilter of the south, if not the entire country. She reports having pieced three quilts in one year, the first of which contains 16,000 patches, the second 25,160, and the third 33,024; all of these are quilted. She refers any doubters to Mr. S. J. Owen, editor of the Gazette, New Albany, Miss., for corroboration of her claims.

Mrs. W. M. Dosa, of Anniston, Ala., reports three quilts she made twenty years ago, one of which contained 6,-823 pieces, a second 2,283 pieces, and a third 3,424.

Mrs. Mary D. Smith, Hatton, Ky., reports a prize quilt containing 3,232 pieces made by her grandmother, a distinction some years ago. She also has another containing 3,496 pieces, and two more containing 3,376. Mrs. Smith is 76 years of age and an expert at quilting.

Mrs. G. A. Crisler, of Round Mountain, Ala., reports a quilt that certainly makes it third in the record, as it is made up of 168 squares and contains in all 24,192 pieces.

EXCITED MAN SHOOTS AT A MOVIE VILLAIN

Leavenworth, Kans., May 9.—Patrons of a moving picture show here were momentarily panic-stricken when a spectator, believing the villain was going to murder the hero of the picture, drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at the struggling figures on the canvas.

The shot rang out just as it appeared the hero would be thrown over a precipice.

The place was crowded, and there was a wild rush for the doors, but order soon was restored by the orchestra, which played throughout the incident. No one was injured.

The man who fired the shot escaped during the excitement.

UNHOBBLED HER HOBBLE SO SHE COULD HOBBLE

South Norwalk, Conn., May 8.—Miss Maude Robinson, member of a leading family, was unable to get her foot upon the step of an open trolley car here, because of her hobble skirt.

Leaning down, she unbuttoned several buttons on the side and the skirt opened enough to allow the owner to mount the step. The conductor and passengers did not mind the wait.

CONGRESS COMMITTEE AGREES WITH WILSON

Permanent Organization Is Deferred Pending Consideration of Increase of Senators.

Washington, May 9.—The democratic congressional committee tonight acquiesced in President Wilson's proposal for postponement of permanent organization pending conferences to consider an increase of the representation of senators on the committee. This decision was reached after a session devoted chiefly to speeches urging necessity for harmonious action of the democrats in the next congressional campaign.

The committee adopted a motion of Representative Johnson, of Kentucky, the most outspoken democratic advocate so far for the chairmanship, that the retiring chairman, Representative Lloyd, of Missouri, and the retiring secretary, Representative Page, of North Carolina, act as the temporary chairman and secretary until the organization is perfected and that they be empowered to confer with President Wilson, the democrats of the senate and the national committee or its executive committee and report when "they see proper to call the committee together."

Subcommittee to Meet.

A subcommittee of the democratic national committee, it was announced, would meet in this city May 16.

The president's attitude as outlined by Chairman Lloyd was the scope of the committee's work should be enlarged to include a senator from every state which now has a democrat in the senate or will elect a senator in 1914. The statement specifically denied reports that the president was inimical to any candidate for the chairmanship.

Senator Stone, Representatives Pepper, Hammond and numerous others joined in a discussion of plans before it was decided to defer reorganization. There were thirty-eight members of the committee present, including many who will be members of the next congress.

The democratic congressional committee met to reorganize for the next national campaign. The keynote of the meeting was expounded in a statement read by Representative Lloyd, of Missouri, the retiring chairman of the committee, explaining President Wilson's views regarding the work of the committee.

This statement of administrative views, to which President Wilson gave his approval today, made it clear that the president had no preference of candidates for chairmanship of the committee and set forth that the maintenance idea to accomplish effective work by united action in the coming campaign and that senators should be actively represented on the congressional committee, inasmuch as various states have provided for popular vote for United States senators.

Rep. Lloyd, of Missouri, He already had announced that he was not a candidate for re-election.

To Revise Tariff Bill.

Some of those instrumental in bringing about the meeting urged the importance of providing for a great campaign fund in support of the Underwood tariff revision bill. They favored sending to the people, through the country newspapers, statements regarding the party record on the bill, and, among other things, the differing views of teh minority in the house or the senate.

The following is the new membership of the committee:

Senators—Missouri, Stone; Virginia, Martin; Texas, Culberson; Nevada, Newlands; Alabama, Bankhead; Oklahoma, Owen; Oregon, Chamberlain.

LADY SLAPS ANOTHER AFTER CHURCH SERVICE

New York, May 9.—Even the tongues of the most charitable in Brad-ley Beach, N. J., are still a-wagging over the spirited encounter that took place Sunday between Mrs. Nellie Layton and Mrs. David Le Compt after the service in the First Methodist Episcopal church, of which both women are prominent members.

It had been rumored for some time that the domestic relations between the Layton's had been somewhat strained.

Sunday Mrs. Layton sat in a pew directly behind Mrs. LeCompt. After the .Rev. N. J. Wright, pastor of the church, had pronounced the blessing at the close of the services, Mrs. Layton hurriedly arose and said a few things to Mrs. LeCompt in which her husband's name occurred and wound up by punching Mrs. LeCompt's nose.

The episode resulted in much censure for Mrs. Layton, and at the meeting of the official board of the church some action may be taken.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES, DAY BY DAY

ALL THE NEWS OF REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING

The action of the streets committee of council yesterday afternoon in voting for the regrading of Whitehall street has fixed that improvement for a certainty, and on the heels of this comes the announcement that four new business buildings will be built on Whitehall street by Charles H. Black, C. E. Currier and others.

Mr. Black stated yesterday that he will erect a $50,000 building on the old Trinity church site at the southwest corner of Whitehall street and Trinity avenue.

The street committee voted to ask the finance committee for $30,000 to begin the work of regrading by October 15. The property owners have given $17,000 towards the work, making a total of $47,000. The county will do the work.

The grade submitted by Captain Clayton was accepted.

New Apartment House.

Plans have been completed by A. F. N. Everett, the architect, for a $35,000 apartment house to be built by Selig, Jr., will build at the corner of Washington and Bass streets.

This will be a three-story brick building containing nine apartments. The lot is 81x125.

The contract for the construction of the building has been let to the Greenham Manufacturing company, and work will begin next Monday. The building will be ready for occupancy September 15 next.

Real Estate Sales.

Eugene S. Kelly has bought through the Charles P. Glover Realty company a tract on Greenwood avenue between Highland avenue and the Brown's mill road. The consideration was $11,500.

This tract has a frontage of 305 feet and a depth of 168 feet. Mr. Kelly bought as an investment and will probably subdivide the tract into lots.

The Dunbar Realty company has sold for J. T. Stewart to Judge David W. Meadow, of Elberton, No. 354 Euclid avenue, a two-story residence on a 50x165, near Colquitt avenue. The consideration was $8,500. Mr. Stewart taking as part payment a vacant lot 54x200 on the east side of Highland avenue, 54 feet north of Bigham street, valued at $2,000.

The same agency sold for Mrs. Ida A. Cameron to Dr. Adair lot 7 of the almshouse property, on the northeast corner of Fairview avenue and Oakdale road, in Druid Hills, for $7,500. The lot is 75x200 feet. The purchaser will improve it with a residence.

J. H. Ewing, of the J. R. Smith and J. H. Ewing agency, has sold for L. M. Anderson to Mrs. Rebecca Allen a parcel on Poundry street, 40x100, between Elliott and Mangum streets, for $2,250.

In Peachtree Heights Park.

Atlantans who have recently inspected the improvements in progress in Peachtree Heights park have expressed surprise at the rapidity with which the progress made, and the substantial nature of the work being done.

On Muscogee and North Muscogee avenues and Rivera road, concrete sidewalks are being laid in front of every residence lot, and the water and sewer connections have already been laid to the front of the lots. Wide walks in front of each lot so that the roads will never have to be dug up or disturbed for this purpose.

Almost as many automobiles as travel Peachtree are now taking Haberaham road through Peachtree Heights park. It is a delightful drive over a splendid, smooth road and through one of the most naturally attractive sections in or around Atlanta.

Nearly five miles of roads through Peachtree Heights park have already been paved, and the work is going right ahead as rapidly as possible consistent with getting substantial and lasting results.

"We are building for permanency in the park," said E. Rivers, speaking of the work there. "We have not been in a hurry about it because our purpose is to let the best results. We are building to make this the premier residence section of Atlanta, and we propose to leave no stone unturned in the achievement of that result."

REAL ESTATE AS AN INVESTMENT
THERE IS NONE BETTER. Stocks may go up or down. The oil wells may run dry. The mine may be a hole in the ground, with the ore existing in someone's imagination only. The stock in the new aeroplane company may look pretty, but will the machine fly?

NEW PEACE PLAN LAUDED BY BRYAN

Secretary of State Thinks America Can Best Bring About General Cessation of Warfare.

New York, May 9.—William Jennings Bryan, speaking at a dinner given tonight in honor of the foreign members if the international conference that is arranging the celebration of 100 years of peace among English-speaking peoples, declared that "the new peace plan offered by President Wilson to all nations is the latest and longest step toward peace."

"It contemplates time for investigation and deliberation," he said, "and this makes the possibility of war remote."

Mr. Bryan's subject was "Press Toward Peace." He said that the part of the United States in the cause of necessity would be large because "more than any other nation it needs a population which is attached by blood to nearly all other nations."

Peace for all time between the United States and Great Britain was the keynote of other addresses of the evening delivered by Lord Weardale, chairman of the English delegation; Sir Edmund Walker, of Canada; Sir George Houstoun Reid, of Australia, and Judge George Gray, of Delaware. Tonight's function marked the last of many that have engaged the delegates here during the last week, for tomorrow they start for Boston.

Over 500 Attend.

More than 500 men and women, most of them of country-wide distinction, were in attendance and unstinted applause greeted all remarks that emphasized the cordial relations between the two nations and the cause of universal peace in general.

The enthusiastic singing of "America" and "God Save the King," was one of the features of the evening. Flags of Great Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia and Belgium, where the treaty of Ghent was signed in 1814, decorated the banquet hall.

Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain, acted as toastmaster. At his left sat the new British ambassador, Sir Arthur Cecil Spring-Rice, and on his right M. Da Gama, the Brazillian ambassador, dean of the diplomatic corps at Washington. Other members of the diplomatic corps, Ambassador Page, members of the foreign delegations, United States senators, judges from several states and the governors of two were interspersed at the speakers' table.

Mr. Bryan was introduced after the banquetters had drunk a toast to the king of England and the president of the United States. The secretary of state said in part:

Three Forces for Peace.

"We have three great forces at work throughout the world, forces that work constantly and irresistibly, and every one of these forces makes for peace. I bring them before you—a growing intelligence and increasing understanding of the doctrine of brotherhood and a growing power of the people to control their destinies through the control of their government. This nation must be willing to put its hand to all those who come from any direction in the interest of peace. No nation shall outstrip us in its advocacy of peace.

"No other nation is better situated or better prepared to set an example in the interest of peace than this, and I am glad on this occasion to make reference to the act of our president that embodies this thought in language.

"Two weeks ago yesterday at his direction, I summoned the representatives of 36 nations represented at Washington that I might for him simultaneously present through them to their governments a proposition in which the president expresses not only his willingness, but his desire to enter into agreement with every other nation, great or small, that so far as our nation and that contracting nation is concerned there will be no war, no declaration, no commencement of hostilities until the question in dispute has been investigated by an international tribunal and its report made known.

"Now, I believe that this proposition is a long step in the direction of peace. It does not mean to take the place of arbitration treaties—make al: you can, submit to arbitration every question which you can agree to submit but when you are through you will find, at least we have found thus far, that there are certain questions that are excepted. And they are so important that they themselves become the cause of war.

Purpose of the Plan.

"It is the purpose of this plan to close the gap and leave no question to become a cause of war. It is the belief of the president that when the treaties have been made between this nation and all other nations severally by which there will be investigations before hostilities begin, that war will become practically impossible. The time that will be allowed gives a chance for the separation of questions of fact from questions of honor, and it gives a chance also for the operation of public opinion, which is increasingly for peace.

"It is the hope of those who believe in the plan that when it is adopted between this nation and other nations it will then be adopted by other nations between themselves until all nations of the earth will be knit together by these agreements and people will know war no more."

Cardinal Gibbons, in a letter expressing regret that he was unable to be present, said:

"Let Britannia and Columbia join hands across the Atlantic, and their outstretched arms will form a sacred arch of peace which will excite the admiration of the nations and will proclaim to the world the hope that with God's help the earth shall never more be deluged with bloodshed in fratricidal war."
